SUNY Cortland vs. St. John Fisher
Friday, April 1, 2005; Pittsford, N.Y.

GAME 1: St. John Fisher 3, Cortland 1
GAME 2: Cortland 3, St. John Fisher 0

PITTSFORD, N.Y. – The SUNY Cortland softball team split a non-league doubleheader at St. John Fisher, dropping the opener, 3-1, before posting a 3-0 win in the nightcap. The win in the second game is the 300th victory at Cortland for head coach Julie Lenhart. She is 300-152-1 in her 10-plus seasons at Cortland, in addition to posting 120 wins in five seasons at Wisconsin-Platteville.

The Red Dragons (7-6), among teams “also receiving votes” in the latest Division III national poll, lost the first game to the Cardinals (8-6) despite a strong pitching performance by junior Stephanie Adamshick (Milton/Marlboro). Adamshick allowed only three hits, did not walk a batter and struck out eight in six innings. She retired the side in order five times, but gave up all three of Fisher's hits and runs in the fourth inning.

Amanda Herberger earned the win for the Cardinals, giving up six hits and three walks and striking out four in seven innings. Cortland left eight runners on base, including four in scoring position.

Adamshick retired the first 10 batters she faced before allowing a bloop single to left by Nicole Watkins. A single by Sara Dresser put runners on first and second and Michelle Dorscheid followed with a two-run double down the left field line. Dorscheid moved to third on a wild pitch and scored on Katie Botkins' sacrifice fly to right.

Cortland got on the board in the fifth when junior Kim Wood (Equinunk, PA/Hancock) led off with the second of her two doubles in the contest and scored on a two-out double by sophomore Dominique Talbot (Rockville Centre/Southside). Wood finished 2-for-3, while Nicole Fredericks (West Babylon) and Kim Huson (Binghamton/Johnson City) were each 1-for-2 with a walk.

In the nightcap, senior Erika Cremona (Mastic Beach/William Floyd) tossed a five-hit shutout with five strikeouts and no walks. The only real trouble she got into was in the fourth inning with the Red Dragons holding on to a 1-0 lead. A single, a fielder's choice and a Dresser double put runners on second and third with one out. Cremona got the next batter to ground out back to her, then induced a grounder to third to end the threat. The Cardinals had only one other runner get to second in the game.

Cortland took the lead in the top of the second as Fredericks led off with a walk, advanced to second on a passed ball and scored on a two-out double by senior Erin Bock (East Hampton). In the sixth, Talbot led off with a single and pinch-runner Amanda Barnett (Syracuse/Jamesville-DeWitt) moved to second on Frederick's sacrifice bunt. Kate Yaun (Liberty) singled to drive in Barnett and advanced to second on the throw. She moved to third on a passed ball and scored on freshman Shara Evanter's (Commack) RBI groundout to short.

Yaun and Bock each finished 1-for-2 with an RBI. Talbot and Wood were each 1-for-3.
