2005 Season Recap

In 2005, the Cortland softball team qualified for the NCAA Div. III playoffs for a third straight season under 11th-year head coach Julie Lenhart. Along the way, the Red Dragons awarded Lenhart with her 300th career win at Cortland and captured the SUNYAC regular-season and tournament titles, while posting a 31-11 record. The team has surpassed the 30-win mark the last four seasons.

Cortland opened its season with nine games at the Rebel Spring Games in Kissimmee, Florida. The Red Dragons pounded out 10 hits and junior pitcher Stephanie Adamshick allowed just one hit in an 8-0 win versus Coast Guard in their first game. The team, however, dropped four of its next five games, including two to nationally ranked squads. A pair of wins over Penn St. Behrend and Misericordia evened the Red Dragons’ record at 4-4, but they closed the trip with a tough 2-1 loss to Coe College in eight innings.

The team rebounded by winning five of its next six games, including a combined no-hitter by senior Erika Cremona and sophomore Ang D’Amboise in a 4-0 victory over Cazenovia. The Red Dragons’ record stood at 9-6 as they prepared for the start of the SUNYAC schedule. Doubleheader sweeps at Oswego and against SUNYIT in conference play and a home sweep of RIT gave Cortland nine straight wins and improved its record to 15-6 overall. A loss at Ithaca in game one of a doubleheader ended the streak, but the Red Dragons responded with a 1-0 victory in the nightcap and another nine-game run had begun.

Cortland took control of the SUNYAC with eight league wins in a row, including a sweep of 16th-ranked Buffalo St. and a no-hitter from Cremona in a 1-0 triumph at Geneseo. The Red Dragons were 24-7 overall and 12-0 in the conference. The team answered a nine-inning loss to Oneonta with four wins in a row, three by shutout. Cortland clinched the top seed in the league with a 16-2 mark and earned the right to host the conference tournament for a second consecutive season.

The Red Dragons defeated fifth-seeded Buffalo St., 6-1, in their opener. An exciting 11-inning 1-0 victory over second-seeded Geneseo advanced Cortland to the championship round, where it faced fourth-seeded Oneonta. Adamshick tossed a six-inning one-hit shutout to earn her third win of the tournament, sophomore Jamie Neuner went 3-for-4 and senior Erin Bock launched a three-run homer to lead the Red Dragons to an 8-0 win. Cortland advanced to an NCAA regional at Ithaca as the second seed but dropped a pair of extra-inning 2-1 games. Senior outfielder Kim Huson was named to the NCAA Regional All-Tournament Team after batting .429.

RBI and 15 stolen bases. Freshman Shara Evanter earned SUNYAC Rookie of the Year, All-SUNYAC and first team All-ECAC and all-region honors after batting .350 on the season with nine doubles, four homers and 22 RBI.

Also named to the All-SUNYAC team were Cremona, Huson, junior Nicole Fredericks and junior Jen Rockwell. About SUNY Cortland

Located atop one of the rolling hills in central New York’s “City of Seven Valleys,” the State University of New York College at Cortland was founded in 1868 as the Cortland Normal School, which included among its earliest students inventor and industrialist Elmer A. Sperry of Sperry-Rand Corp. fame.

Over the decades, the campus expanded and in 1941, by an act of legislature and the Board of Regents, the institution officially became a four-year college providing courses leading to the bachelor’s degree. In 1948, Cortland was a founding member of the State University of New York.

Today, approximately 7,500 students are pursuing degrees within the College’s three academic divisions — arts and sciences, professional studies and the school of education. Twenty-three departments with a faculty of more than 400 offer the SUNY Cortland student body 70 majors and 44 minors from which to choose.

The College’s main campus covers 191 acres and includes 31 traditional and modern buildings. Fifteen of these structures are residence halls providing on-campus housing for approximately 3,000 students. Cortland also operates its Outdoor Education Center at Raquette Lake in the Adirondacks, the Hoxie Gorge Nature Preserve outside Cortland, and the Brauer Memorial Geological Field Station on the Helderberg Escarpment near Albany.

At Cortland, athletics are viewed as having an important role in the educational mission of the College. During the fall, winter and spring seasons, Cortland participates in 25 intercollegiate sports — 14 women’s and 11 men’s — in an attempt to provide a broad program which meets the needs, interests and abilities of its students.

The Cortland athletic program placed 13th nationally out of 434 colleges and universities in the 2004-05 all-sport United States Sports Academy Directors’ Cup Division III standings. The award was formerly known as the Sears Directors’ Cup from 1995-2002 and the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) Directors’ Cup in the 2002-03 school year. Cortland is the only New York school and one of only six nationwide to finish in the top 20 each of the last 10 years. Since 1989, the Red Dragons have captured 12 NCAA Division III team titles.

The College offers its student-athletes excellent athletic facilities. The newly-constructed on-campus stadium features two artificial turf fields. One field seats 6,500 spectators, the other 1,500. The Cortland football, field hockey, men’s and women’s soccer, men’s and women’s lacrosse and men’s and women’s track and field teams are among those who utilize the facility, which the New York Times called “...a new stadium worthy of a major university power.”

The Bessie L. Park Physical Education and Recreation Center, opened in 1973, features the Whitney T. Corey Gymnasium with a 3,500 seating capacity; the Olympic-sized Harriet Holsten swimming pool with gallery seating for 1,500; the Alumni Ice Arena, a facility which can accommodate 2,500 spectators; a 500-seat gymnastics arena, racquetball and squash courts, a wrestling room, modern athletic training facilities and the state-of-the-art Francis Woods Fitness Facility.

Nearby Clayton R. Lusk Field House, with its tartan-textured surface, is home for the indoor track teams, varsity practice sessions and recreational activities. Cortland’s soccer teams play on T. Fred “Prof” Holloway Field, which has lights for night contests and newly installed bleachers. The College also has 22 outdoor tennis courts and two outdoor basketball courts and boasts Robert H. Wallace Field (baseball) and Dragon Field (softball) as part of its 51 acres of athletic fields.
