Cortland’s Stephanie Adamshick Named SUNYAC Softball Pitcher of the Week

SUNY Cortland senior Stephanie Adamshick (Milton/Marlboro) has been selected as the State University of New York Athletic Conference (SUNYAC) Softball Pitcher of the Week for the week ending April 9.

Adamshick posted a pair of one-hit shutouts last week. In a 9-0 win over Oswego on Thursday that was called after five innings, Adamshick recorded five strikeouts and became Cortland’s career strikeout leader. On Sunday at SUNYIT, she fanned a school single-game record 16 batters and walked only one in a 1-0 victory. She now has 496 strikeouts in her four-year collegiate career.

For the season, Adamshick is 7-2 with a 1.12 ERA, five shutouts and has struck out 66 batters in 69 innings. The Red Dragons are 16-6 overall and 6-2 in SUNYAC play.
