Cortland’s Shara Evanter Chosen as SUNYAC Softball Player of the Week

SUNY Cortland sophomore designated player/infielder Shara Evanter (Commack) has been named the State University of New York Athletic Conference (SUNYAC) Softball Player of the Week for the week ending March 26.

Evanter batted .625 (10-for-16) with two doubles, five RBI and five runs scored in four games for the Red Dragons last weekend in Pennsylvania. She was 6-for-8 with a double and four RBI in a doubleheader split at Muhlenberg College on Saturday. The following day, she was a combined 4-for-8 with a double and an RBI in a pair of setbacks to King's College.

Evanter is batting a team-best .348 this season with 10 RBI in 14 games for the 10-4 Red Dragons. Cortland entered the weekend ranked 14th nationally in Division III, but is now among the “others receiving votes” section in the latest NFCA Division III poll.
