MANLIUS, N.Y. -- SUNY Cortland freshman Laurie Dorscheid (Rochester/Fairport) was crowned as the top player in the State University of New York Athletic Conference after capturing the first singles title at the league's championship tournament at the Eastside Racquet Club. The top seed in the flight, Dorscheid cruised through her three matches. She defeated Katie Goldacker of Geneseo 6-0, 6-1 in the quarterfinals, third-seeded Kerry Farrell of New Paltz 6-1, 6-2 in the semifinals and second-seeded Elizabeth Muller of Oneonta 6-3, 6-0 in the finals.

New Paltz won its first-ever league title with 32 points. The Hawks won four singles titles and two doubles crowns. A close battle ensued for the second through sixth spots in the final 10-team standings. Geneseo finished second with 19 points, followed by Oneonta in third (15), Brockport in fourth (14), Cortland in fifth (13) and Plattsburgh in sixth (11).

Dorscheid was the lone Red Dragon to reach the championship round. Two other Cortland singles players and one doubles team advanced to the semifinals.

Senior Gaby Somma (Pearl River), seeded fourth, won her quarterfinal match at third singles 6-0, 6-2 over Buffalo State's Molly Macpherson before losing to New Paltz's Megan Crevoiserat, the eventual champion, 6-2, 4-6, 6-2, in the semifinals. Sophomore Jen Belardinelli (Endicott/Union-Endicott), the third seed at fifth singles, won by default in the quarterfinals but lost 6-3, 6-0 to top-seeded Amie Larson of New Paltz in the semifinals.

At second doubles, Somma and freshman Meredith McCaslin (Babylon) were victorious in one of the tournament's most exciting matches. They beat Yen Leung and Shalini Sudarsanan of Geneseo in the quarterfinals 7-6, 7-6, with each set decided by a 9-7 tiebreaker. Somma and McCaslin then took eventual champion and top-seeded Megan Crevoiserat and Sophie Giret of New Paltz to three sets before losing 4-6, 6-3, 6-4 in the semifinals.
