SUNY Cortland Women’s Tennis

Day 1 of 3 at ITA Northeast Championship
Friday, September 26, 2003; at William Smith College, Geneva, N.Y.

GENEVA, N.Y. – SUNY Cortland sophomore Laurie Dorscheid (Fairport) advanced to the round-of-16 in the singles championship draw at the Intercollegiate Tennis Association (ITA) Northeast Women's Tennis Championship, hosted by William Smith College.

Dorscheid, seeded third in the 64-player field, opened with a 6-2, 6-1 win over Kristen Tukel of Richard Stockton College (N.J.). She followed that with a second-round 6-2, 6-3 victory versus Crystal Vo of Drew University (N.J.). Dorscheid will face Jill Adornetto of Rochester in the third round on Saturday.

Freshman Andrea TerBush (Liberty) won her opening singles match, 6-2, 6-2, over Aracely Cruz of Stevens Tech (N.J.), but lost to second-seeded Lauren Stellato of Union, 6-1, 6-4. Junior Sara Feikert (North Syracuse/Cicero-North Syracuse) lost in the opening round to fifth-seeded Diya Uberoi of Vassar, 6-1, 6-0, and freshman Amanda Husson (Middletown) lost to fourth-seeded Michelle Dest of NYU, 6-1, 7-6.

In the singles consolation draw, Husson won her first match, 8-1, versus Nancy Matusiak of Brockport. Husson will play Narguess Arjomand of Ithaca in the next round. Feikert has not played her first consolation match yet. TerBush is not included in the consolation draw since she won her first championship bracket match.

In doubles play, Dorscheid and Husson defeated a Skidmore doubles team in the first round, 8-4, before losing to a Vassar combination, 8-1. Feikert and TerBush dropped their opening match, 8-1, to Ithaca and were knocked out of the consolation bracket by Vassar, 8-2.
