SUNY Cortland Women’s Tennis
at SUNYAC Championships
Friday-Sunday, October 10-12, 2003; at Eastside Racquet Club, Manlius, N.Y.

MANLIUS, N.Y. – SUNY Cortland won four of six singles flights and all three doubles brackets to capture the State University of New York Athletic Conference (SUNYAC) women’s tennis title at the Eastside Racquet Club. The championship is the Red Dragons’ first since 2000 and their fifth overall. Cortland finished with 33 points. Defending champion New Paltz was second with 21 points and Geneseo was third with 17. Nine teams competed in the three-day tournament. Cortland sixth-year head coach Pete Cahill was named the SUNYAC Women’s Tennis Coach of the Year.

Sophomore Laurie Dorscheid (Fairport) successfully defended her SUNYAC first singles title with three straight wins, capped by a win over New Paltz's Kerry Farrell, 6-4, 6-2, in Sunday's title match. Dorscheid also teamed with freshman Amanda Husson (Middletown) to win first doubles. They defeated Farrell and Rebecca Sparacin in the finals, 6-2, 6-1.

At third singles, freshman Andrea TerBush (Liberty) defeated Plattsburgh's Brit Montmeat in the finals, 6-1, 6-2. Junior Sara Feikert (North Syracuse/Cicero-North Syracuse) claimed the title at fourth singles with a 6-2, 7-5 win over New Paltz's Amie Larson. TerBush and Feikert won the second doubles title as well with a 6-2, 6-4 triumph over Nicole King and Rene Smith of Geneseo. Sophomore Meredith McCaslin (Babylon) won the sixth singles title, knocking off Smith in three sets, 6-1, 3-6, 6-2, in the finals.

Senior Stephany Krauz (Huntington/Walt Whitman) and senior Stacy Gordon (Rochester/Brighton) won the third doubles title, defeating New Paltz's Sara Godlistrict and Amanda Rosario, 7-5, 2-6, 6-1, in the championship match. Krauz advanced to the finals at fifth singles before losing, 2-6, 6-1, 6-3, to Geneseo's Shalini Sudarsanan.
