SUNY Cortland vs. SUNY Geneseo
Friday, October 1, 2004; Geneseo, N.Y.

FINAL SCORE: Cortland 8, Geneseo 1

GENESEO, N.Y. – Cortland improved its dual-match record to 7-2 with an 8-1 victory at SUNY Geneseo. The Red Dragons opened with three wins in doubles play, including a come-from-behind victory at first doubles. Cortland then claimed five of six singles matches, with two coming in three sets.

At first doubles, junior Laurie Dorscheid (Fairport) and sophomore Amanda Husson (Middletown) fought off three match points before finally posting a 9-8 victory. Dorscheid and Husson won a tiebreaker, 7-4, after the match was tied at eight games apiece. They are 9-3 in doubles play this season, with a 7-2 mark in dual matches.

At second doubles, sophomore Andrea TerBush (Liberty) and junior Meredith McCaslin (Babylon) were 8-6 winners. TerBush and McCaslin are 9-0 in dual-match doubles play this fall. The third doubles combination of junior Jen Hemedinger (Binghamton/Chenango Forks) and freshman Ashley Abar (Champlain/Northeastern Clinton) won 8-0. Hemedinger is a combined 7-2 in doubles action this year with three different partners.

Dorscheid and Geneseo’s Kristen Greiner went three sets at first singles for the second straight week. Last weekend, Greiner won the first set versus Dorscheid at the ITA Northeast Regionals before losing the next two. The same thing happened this week as Dorscheid defeated Greiner 1-6, 7-5, 6-4.

Husson upped her singles record to 8-2 (7-1 in duals) with a 6-2, 6-0 win at second singles. TerBush won the first set at third singles, 7-6 with a 7-3 tiebreaker, lost the second set, 6-4, then cruised to a 6-0 win in the third set. Abar was a 6-3, 6-4 winner at fourth singles and McCaslin won her match at fifth singles, 6-4, 6-1. Geneseo (6-3) earned its lone win at sixth singles with a 6-1, 6-3 decision by Lauren Eichenauer.

Cortland will stay on the road and play Brockport on Saturday at noon.
