SUNY Cortland Women's Tennis

SUNY Cortland vs. SUNY Oneonta
Tuesday, September 7, 2004; Cortland, N.Y.

FINAL SCORE: Cortland 8, Oneonta 1

CORTLAND, N.Y. – Cortland swept all three doubles matches and claimed five of six singles matches to defeat visiting Oneonta, 8-1, in a dual match. The Red Dragons improve to 2-0 with the victory, while Oneonta is now 1-2.

Junior Laurie Dorscheid (Fairport) and sophomore Amanda Husson (Middletown) posted an 8-3 win at first doubles and sophomore Andrea TerBush (Liberty) and junior Meredith McCaslin (Babylon) won 8-5 at second doubles. Junior Jen Hemedinger (Binghamton/Chenango Forks) and sophomore Stephanie Reynolds (Johnson City) teamed for an 8-2 win at third doubles.

Four of Cortland's five singles victories came in convincing fashion. Husson was a 6-2, 6-0 victor at second singles and TerBush won 6-4, 6-1 at third singles. Hemedinger posted a 6-2, 6-2 win at fifth singles and Belardinelli cruised to a 6-1, 6-0 victory at sixth singles.

The other two singles matches went to three sets. At fourth singles, McCaslin lost the first set to Lisa Seelig (Valley Stream/Valley Stream South), 6-4, but rebounded to win the next two sets relatively easily at 6-2 and 6-1. At first singles, Oneonta senior Libby Kent (Binghamton) grabbed a hard-fought 6-4, 4-6, 7-5 win over Dorscheid, the two-time defending State University of New York Athletic Conference (SUNYAC) first singles champion.

Cortland will host Wells College in an exhibition match on Wednesday and Division II Le Moyne College on Thursday. The Red Dragons will play two matches at home on Saturday, Sept. 11 – both their regularly-scheduled 1 p.m. contest with Potsdam and a 9 a.m. match versus St. Lawrence that has been rescheduled from Sunday.
