St. Lawrence University vs. SUNY Cortland
Saturday, September 11, 2004; at Cortland, N.Y.

FINAL SCORE: St. Lawrence 5, Cortland 4

CORTLAND, N.Y. - St. Lawrence won four-of-six singles matches, including two key three-set victories at third and fourth singles, to hand Cortland its first loss of the season in women's tennis Saturday morning. The Red Dragons fell to 2-1 entering their afternoon match versus Potsdam, while the Saints improved to 3-1.

Cortland opened up doubles play by taking two of the three matches. Junior Meredith McCaslin (Babylon) teamed with sophomore Andrea TerBush (Liberty) to take second doubles, 8-4, while junior Jen Hemedinger (Binghamton/Chenango Forks) and sophomore Stephanie Reynolds (Johnson City) won third doubles in exciting fashion, 9-8, after winning the tiebreaker. St. Lawrence senior Liz Kelly (Hingham, MA) and sophomore Anne Moulin (Lexington, MA) were victorious in first doubles, 8-6.

In singles play, junior Laurie Dorscheid (Fairport) posted a 6-1, 6-3 win for the Red Dragons at first singles, and sophomore Amanda Husson (Middletown) captured second singles, 6-3, 6-3. The Saints earned two straight-set singles wins also. Junior Meg Terrien (Colchester, VT) won her match at fifth singles, 6-0, 6-1, and junior Kristie Martin (Becket, MA/Wahconah Regional) took sixth singles, 6-1, 6-3.

The match was decided at third and fourth singles. St. Lawrence junior Courtney Ellis (Jericho, VT/Mt. Mansfield) and Kelly each rallied from a set down to win her match. Ellis was victorious in third singles, 3-6, 6-1, 6-2, and Kelly took fourth singles, 2-6, 6-1, 6-4.
