SUNYAC Names Cortland’s Katie Brody Volleyball Player of the Week

SUNY Cortland sophomore outside hitter Katie Brody (Apalachin, NY/Vestal) has been named the State University of New York Athletic Conference (SUNYAC) Women’s Volleyball Player of the Week for the week ending Oct. 31.

Brody had a .410 hitting percentage and averaged 4.2 kills and 3.8 digs per game during a 3-1 week for the Red Dragons. Brody started the week with 11 kills and seven digs in a 3-0 win over Geneseo. She then led Cortland to a 2-1 record and a second-place finish at the New York State Women’s Collegiate Athletic Association (NYSWCAA) tournament in Cortland.

An all-tournament team selection, Brody had 16 kills, a .556 hitting percentage, 12 digs and five blocks in a 3-0 quarterfinal win versus Brockport, then posted 19 kills, 17 digs and three blocks in a 3-1 victory over Ithaca in the semifinals. She added eight kills and 13 digs in a loss to NYU in the championship match.

Brody leads the 34-2 Red Dragons this fall with 380 kills and 342 digs. The Red Dragons will be the Eastern division top seed in the six-team SUNYAC tournament, hosted by Brockport on Nov. 5-6.
