Cortland's Michelle Ciquera Earns D3Hoops.com All-America and All-Region Honors; Ciquera and Dani Maye on All-ECAC Upstate New York Squad

SUNY Cortland senior forward Michelle Ciquera (Massapequa) completed her successful collegiate career by being named as an honorable mention Division III All-American and a second team All-East selection by the website D3Hoops.com.

In addition, Ciquera was a first team honoree on the Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC) Division III Upstate New York women's basketball all-star squad. Cortland sophomore guard Dani Maye (Kirkwood/Windsor) was an honorable mention All-ECAC selection.

The State University of New York Athletic Conference (SUNYAC) Player of the Year and SUNYAC Tournament MVP, Ciquera led the Red Dragons with 13.7 points, 7.7 rebounds and 4.1 steals per game. She set a school single-season record with 125 steals and led the SUNYAC in that category as well as free throw percentage (91.5 percent, including makes on her final 26 attempts). She also averaged 3.5 assists per game and was the only player ranked in the top 10 in the SUNYAC in scoring, rebounding, assists and steals.

Maye was Cortland's second-leading scorer (13.5 points per game) and rebounder (6.3 per contest). A first team All-SUNYAC selection, Maye shot 36 percent from three-point distance (65-of-179) and 80 percent from the foul line (65-of-81).

Cortland finished the season with a 25-5 record. The Red Dragons won the SUNYAC title and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Division III tournament. Cortland has won at least 25 games in four of the last six seasons.

# #