SUNY Cortland vs. SUNY Fredonia
Saturday, February 7, 2004; Dods Hall; Fredonia, N.Y.

FINAL SCORE: Cortland 60, Fredonia 46

FREDONIA, N.Y. – Sophomore Dani Maye (Kirkwood/Windsor) scored 20 points and grabbed six rebounds as Cortland rallied from a halftime deficit to defeat host Fredonia, 60-46, in a SUNYAC contest. The Red Dragons are now 16-3 overall and 10-1 in the league. Fredonia is 8-12 and 3-8.

Sophomore Kaylin VanDusen (Schuyler/West Canada Valley) added 14 points and four steals in the winning effort. Senior Michelle Ciquera (Massapequa) finished with eight points and five assists and junior Kristen Egan (Oyster Bay) had five steals and four assists.

Cortland's win overshadowed a strong first-half performance by the Blue Devils' Katie Estes. The junior forward scored 21 points on 9-of-14 shooting in the opening 20 minutes, but was held scoreless on 0-for-3 shooting in the second half. She finished the game with 21 points and nine rebounds.

Fredonia used a 20-8 run to turn a 14-8 deficit into a 28-22 lead with 4:59 left in the half. Cortland closed to within 31-30 at halftime. Trailing 33-30, the Red Dragons went on an 18-2 run over a nine-minute span to lead 48-35. Maye scored nine of her 11 second-half points, including a pair of three-pointers, during that stretch.

Fredonia got back to within 52-44 on a Heather Martin three-pointer with 5:56 left but was outscored 8-2 the rest of the way. Martin finished with 10 points for the Blue Devils and Amy Bushen dished out eight assists.

Cortland held Fredonia to 25 percent shooting (6-of-24) from the floor in the second half after the Blue Devils had shot 50 percent in the opening stanza. The Red Dragons were held to 38 percent shooting, but did make 10-of-11 free throws.
