FINAL SCORE: Cortland 83, New Paltz 41

CORTLAND, N.Y. – Cortland took a 21-4 lead just over seven minutes into the game and the Red Dragons (19-3, 12-1 SUNYAC) went on to defeat New Paltz, 83-41, for their eighth straight victory and 12th in the last 13 games.

Senior Michelle Ciquera (Massapequa) led a balanced offensive attack with 15 points. Junior Deirdre Zimmerman (Almond/Alfred-Almond) came off the bench to score 13 points and grab a game-high eight rebounds. Sophomore Dani Maye (Kirkwood/Windsor) made 3-of-6 three-pointers and finished with 11 points. Freshman Liz Cornell (Union Springs) and junior Kristen Egan (Oyster Bay) each scored 10 points. Cornell hit 4-of-5 shots from the floor. For the second straight game, Egan finished 3-of-3 from the field, including 2-of-2 on three-pointers.

New Paltz (6-15, 3-10 SUNYAC) was led by Kerri Kelty’s 15 points and six rebounds. Kelty made 7-of-11 shots, but the rest of her teammates connected on only 9-of-49 from the field and the Hawks finished the game at 27 percent.

Cortland committed only eight turnovers to 18 for New Paltz. The Red Dragons made 25-of-36 free throws and hit eight three-pointers.
