Tuesday, February 1, 2005; Corey Gymnasium; Cortland, N.Y.

FINAL SCORE: Cortland 71, New Paltz 62

CORTLAND, N.Y. – Freshman Sara Cavanaugh (Hastings-on-Hudson/Hastings) scored a game-high 19 points and blocked four shots as SUNY Cortland defeated SUNY New Paltz, 71-62, in a SUNYAC women’s basketball matchup.

Cavanaugh made 8-of-13 shots from the floor and was one of four double-figure scorers for the Red Dragons (13-4, 7-2 SUNYAC). Junior Dani Maye (Kirkwood/Windsor) made 3-of-4 three-pointers and finished with 15 points. Junior Kaylin Van Dusen (Schuyler/West Canada Valley) and sophomore Andrea Wilkinson (New Paltz) scored 13 points each. Wilkinson made 6-of-7 shots and pulled down a game-high nine rebounds. VanDusen and senior Kristen Egan (Oyster Bay) registered seven rebounds each and Egan also finished with six assists.

Sophomore Sandra Glazewski (Dobbs Ferry) led New Paltz (9-9, 4-6) with 18 points. She made all three of her three-point attempts. Freshman Amber Sohns (Delhi/Delaware Academy) added 13 points, sophomore Kerri Kelty (Valley Stream) added nine points and six steals and senior Kim Weigel (Whitestone/St. Francis Prep) finished with nine points and five steals.

Glazewski scored 14 points in a closely-contested first half. New Paltz led 30-26 with 4:51 remaining, but a 12-4 run to end the half gave the Red Dragons a 38-34 lead. The Hawks scored 31 seconds into the second half to close within two, but Cortland fashioned a 16-2 run over the next seven minutes to take a 54-38 lead. Maye started the run with a three-pointer and two free throws. A pair of Wilkinson layups at 12:50 and 12:22 capped the streak.

Cortland’s lead grew to 19 points with 5:32 left. New Paltz used a 12-4 run over the final three minutes to create the final margin.

Cortland shot 60 percent (12-of-20) from the field in the second half and 52 percent for the game. The Red Dragons made 7-of-15 three-pointers. New Paltz shot 46 percent in the first half, including 4-of-6 from three-point range, but was held to 29 percent shooting in the second half and finished at 36 percent.
