SUNY Cortland vs. SUNY Potsdam
Tuesday, February 15, 2005; Corey Gymnasium; Cortland, N.Y.

FINAL SCORE: Cortland 86, Potsdam 53

CORTLAND, N.Y. – Junior Dani Maye (Kirkwood/Windsor) scored a season-high 26 points, including a career-best six three-pointers, as Cortland defeated Potsdam, 86-53.

Junior Kaylin Van Dusen (Schuyler/West Canada Valley) scored 13 points, while senior Kristen Egan (Oyster Bay) and sophomore Andrea Wilkinson (New Paltz) each dished out seven assists. The Red Dragons (17-5, 11-3 SUNYAC) have clinched a top-four finish in the SUNYAC regular-season standings with two games remaining. Cortland will host a league quarterfinal game next Tuesday, with the game time and opponent to be determined.

Potsdam (2-21, 0-14) was led by junior Clare Ennis (Saratoga), who made six three-pointers and finished with 21 points. Senior Kara Miller (Ontario/Wayne) added 16 points and nine rebounds and sophomore Kristina Bradberry (Sandy Creek) grabbed a game-high 11 rebounds.

Potsdam took a 6-0 lead 2:07 into the game, but Cortland scored the next 11 points, four by Wilkinson, to lead 11-6. The Red Dragons held a 15-11 lead with 13:42 left in the half before going on a 16-1 run over the next four minutes. Maye hit three shots from behind the arc during that stretch. She scored 17 points in the half, connecting on 5-of-7 three-pointers, and finished the game 6-of-9 from long distance.

Cortland led by as much as 28 points in the first half and by 23 at halftime. The lead stayed at least 20 points the entire second half. The Red Dragons made 8-of-18 three-pointers, including 7-of-14 in the first half. Cortland shot 48 percent from the floor and held Potsdam to 29 percent shooting.

Cortland will host Brockport on Friday and travel to Fredonia on Saturday. Potsdam completes the season with home games this weekend versus New Paltz and Oneonta.
