Season Preview

The 2003-04 Cortland women's basketball team had a successful season. The Red Dragons captured the SUNYAC title, tied for 17th nationally and posted a final record of 25-5. Seventh-year head coach Jeannette Yeoman hopes the team can repeat its accomplishments this season.

While Cortland must find a way to fill the void left by the graduation of 2004 SUNYAC Player of the Year Michelle Ciquera, Yeoman feels she has the athletes ready to step in and take charge. The Red Dragons return four starters and several key reserves from last year’s squad and hope to send a deeper team out on the hardwood. As is the usual case, Cortland will depend heavily on a strong defense. And with more athletic players ready to come off the bench to give the starters a rest, the Red Dragons may utilize a fullcourt press more often in 2004-05.

Three players will be the focal point of the offense. Senior point guard Kristen Egan started all 30 games in 2003-04 and averaged nearly 33 minutes per game. She averaged 6.5 points per game and led the Red Dragons with 117 assists. Egan was second on the team with 56 steals and 34 three-point baskets. Her primary role is to get everyone involved in the offense, but she’ll also be counted on to loosen up opposing defenses as an outside threat and a penetrator.

Junior guards Dani Maye and Kaylin VanDusen have been two-year starters and understand that they’ll need to elevate their games this season. Confidence and experience, along with plenty of talent, are definite strong suits for the two. Maye started 27 games in 2003-04 and was the team’s top three-point threat (65-for-179, 36.3 percent) and second-leading scorer (13.5 PPG) and rebounder (6.3 RPG). She earned honorable mention All-ECAC Upstate New York and first team All-SUNYAC honors. VanDusen has started 56-of-58 games in her career, including all 30 as a sophomore. She was third on the team in scoring (10.8 PPG), assists (62), steals (54) and three pointers (30) last season and was named to the SUNYAC All-Tournament Team for the second year in a row.

Although Egan, Maye and VanDusen may represent the nucleus of the offense in 2004-05, a number of players have improved their stock this season and look to contribute more. Senior guard Deirdre Zimmerman was instant offense off the bench last season, averaging 6.9 points while averaging 16 minutes per game. She brings loads of offensive ability to the floor and teams will have to key on her this season. Junior forward Chrissy DeHay, who led the team in blocked shots in 2003-04, brings good size to the floor. She continues to get stronger, gain confidence and is clearly an improved all-around player. Sophomore Andrea Wilkinson started all 30 games as a freshman and averaged 5.6 points and 3.4 rebounds per game. Now with a full year of experience, she better understands the rigors of the season and enters 2004-05 ready to build on the success of her freshman campaign.

Sophomores Liz Cornell and Lindsay Dalton have had a strong preseason and have elevated their games. Cornell saw action in 20 games last season and averaged 2.9 points and 1.6 rebounds per game. Dalton played in 14 games in 2003-04, averaging 2.4 points per game while connecting on 62.5 percent of her shots. Both players will be assets on both ends of the floor. Sophomore Kerry Costello in the team’s ninth returner. She appeared in 19 games last season off the bench and continues to improve her game.

Of the four new players on the roster, three have good size. Freshman Sara Cavannaugh is a 6-0 guard/forward who earned all-section honors at Hastings High. Freshman Janice Meyer, a 5-10 guard/forward, played for former Cortland player and assistant coach Kristie Meyer at Roy C. Ketcham and was an all-section selection. Six-foot forward Kate Warden was a four-year starter at Gouverneur, earning all-northern honors. All three have shown glimpses of their potential in the preseason.

Also new to the team is freshman point guard Kristin Courtney. Courtney, who is also a member of Cortland’s nationally ranked field hockey team, is an athletic player who earned all-league and all-section honors at F.D. Roosevelt.

Last season, the Red Dragons re-established themselves as the team to beat in the SUNYAC. They won a big first round NCAA game on the road and trailed by just two points at eventual Final Four participant Rochester with five minutes remaining in the second round. The players have experienced success and now are committed to making a run further in the NCAA playoffs. With a deeper team, loads of quickness and an influx of size, the Red Dragons have the talent to make it happen.
Coaching Staff

Jeannette Yeoman
Head Coach

Jeannette Yeoman enters her seventh season as head coach of SUNY Cortland’s women’s basketball program in 2004-05.

Yeoman’s overall record in six seasons at Cortland is an impressive 138-33 (.807). She enters the 2004-05 season tied with Bonnie Foley for the most career wins in Cortland women’s basketball history.

In the 2003-04 season, Yeoman was named the State University of New York Athletic Conference (SUNYAC) Coach of the Year. She led the Red Dragons to a 25-5 record, the league title and the NCAA Division III tournament. Cortland won its opening-round NCAA game and finished tied for 17th nationally.

In all, Yeoman has led Cortland to three SUNYAC tournament titles and four NCAA playoff showings. In 2000-01, the Red Dragons finished with a school-best 27-3 record, won the SUNYAC regular season crown and made the program’s first NCAA “Sweet 16” appearance since 1992. Cortland was 26-2 in 1999-2000 and 25-3 in 1998-99. In both of those seasons, the Red Dragons won the SUNYAC regular season and tournament titles and received a bye into the second round of the NCAA playoffs. Yeoman was the SUNYAC co-Coach of the Year in the 1999-2000 season.

She led the Red Dragons to a 19-8 record in 2001-02 and a 16-12 mark in 2002-03. The Red Dragons have advanced to the SUNYAC tournament championship game each of the last six seasons.

Yeoman was named the Basketball Coaches Association of New York (BCANY) Coach of the Year in 2000, 2001 and 2004. She is currently a member of the BCANY’s Board of Directors.

Prior to her arrival at Cortland, Yeoman served as the head women’s basketball coach at Alfred University for four seasons. She led the Saxons to a 16-9 mark in 1996-97, the second best record in the program’s history and its first winning season in nine years. The team qualified for the New York State Women’s Collegiate Athletic Association playoffs. She also served as Alfred’s Senior Women’s Administrator for two years.

Yeoman was an assistant coach at Northern Michigan University for four years prior to Alfred. During that stretch, the Wildcats had a combined 85-31 record and made two trips to the NCAA Division II playoffs. Yeoman also served as a graduate assistant coach at Shippenburg (Pa.) University.

A 1990 alumna of St. Joseph’s College in Rensselaer, Ind., Yeoman graduated as the school’s all-time leading scorer with 2,280 points. As a senior she was a first team All-American and Great Lakes Valley Conference (GLVC) Player of the Year as she led the Pumas to a 28-2 record and the NCAA Division II “Elite Eight.” She also led the team to 27-4 marks and the NCAA playoffs in both her sophomore and junior seasons. She was inducted into the GLVC Hall of Fame in May 2004.

The Lafayette, Ind., native scored at least 50 points on two occasions, including a school and GLVC record 51 points along with 22 assists against Lewis University as a senior. A member of St. Joseph’s Athletic Hall of Fame, Yeoman was ranked 12th on the NCAA Division II career scoring chart, entering the 2003-04 season.

Jon Marsilio
Graduate Assistant Coach

Jon Marsilio enters his fifth year as an assistant coach on the Cortland women’s basketball staff during the 2004-05 season. Marsilio, who received his bachelor’s degree in Physical Education from Cortland in 2004, is currently pursuing a master’s degree in Health Education at the College.

Besides his coaching duties at Cortland, Marsilio was an assistant coach for the Tompkins-Cortland Special Olympics basketball team and a founding member of SUNY Cortland’s Chapter of Circle K International. Marsilio was also the director of Project Adventure at Rosmarin’s Day Camp the past two years and has served as a substitute teacher at the Chester Academy from 2002-04.

Marsilio is a 1999 graduate of Warwick High, where he lettered in football and indoor and outdoor track and field. He was awarded jersey number 44, given to the football player displaying the best work ethic and most dedication to the team. Marsilio was also a member of Warwick’s 1997 New York State Champion outdoor track and field team.

Game-by-Game Recap

Cortland 67, Skidmore 53 (Skidmore Invitational)
(Nov. 22; Saratoga Springs, NY)
Cortland opened up a 37-23 halftime lead and cruised to the win in the first round of the Skidmore Invitational. Dani Maye led the way with 20 points and eight rebounds, while Michelle Ciquera added 16 points and five steals and Kristen Egan dished out six assists.

Cortland 65, W. Connecticut St. 42 (Skidmore Invitational)
(Nov. 23; Saratoga Springs, NY)
The Red Dragons used 10-0 and 14-2 runs in the first half to build a 33-11 lead at intermission. Michelle Ciquera scored 14 points, collected four steals and three assists and was named Tournament MVP. Kristen Egan (12 points, six assists) and Dani Maye (11 points) were named to the All-Tournament Team.

Cortland 82, Elmira 44
(Nov. 25; Cortland, NY)
The Red Dragons turned a 10-9 lead into a 23-9 advantage with 13-0 run in the first half and never looked back. Michelle Ciquera led Cortland with 18 points, 10 rebounds, six steals and five assists. Dani Maye added 16 points and Deirdre Zimmerman chipped in with 11 points off the bench.

Cortland 59, Brockport 53
(Dec. 2; Brockport, NY)
Neither team led by more than six points until Kristen Egan’s three pointer with 3:43 left and her layup with 2:55 remaining extended Cortland’s lead from 50-47 to 55-47. Egan and Kaylin VanDusen iced the game with two free throws each in the last 33 seconds. VanDusen led the Red Dragons with 14 points. Andrea Wilkinson added 10 points and nine rebounds.

Cortland 85, Nazareth 40
(Dec. 4; Cortland, NY)
Cortland had a run of 19-0 in the first half and a run of 15-0 in the second half in the rout of the Golden Flyers. Thirteen players contributed to the scoring for the Red Dragons, led by Michelle Ciquera, who netted 16 points and collected eight rebounds, seven steals and six assists. Liz Cornell and Deirdre Zimmerman contributed eight points each off the bench.

About SUNY Cortland

Located atop one of the rolling hills in central New York’s “City of Seven Valleys,” the State University of New York College at Cortland was founded in 1868 as the Cortland Normal School, which included among its earliest students inventor and industrialist Elmer A. Sperry of Sperry-Rand Corp. fame.

Over the decades, the campus expanded and in 1941, by an act of legislature and the Board of Regents, the institution officially became a four-year college providing courses leading to the bachelor’s degree. In 1948, Cortland was a founding member of the State University of New York.

Today, approximately 7,500 students are pursuing degrees within the College’s three academic divisions — arts and sciences, professional studies and the school of education. Twenty-three departments with a faculty of more than 400 offer the SUNY Cortland student body 70 majors and 44 minors from which to choose.

The College’s main campus covers 191 acres and includes 30 traditional and modern buildings. Fourteen of these structures are residence halls providing on-campus housing for approximately 3,000 students. Cortland also operates its Outdoor Education Center at Raquette Lake in the Adirondacks, the Hoxie Gorge Nature Preserve outside Cortland, and the Brauer Memorial Geological Field Station on the Helderberg Escarpment near Albany.

At Cortland, athletics are viewed as having an important role in the educational mission of the College. During the fall, winter and spring seasons, Cortland participates in 25 intercollegiate sports — 14 women’s and 11 men’s — in an attempt to provide a broad program which meets the needs, interests and abilities of its students.

The Cortland athletic program placed eighth nationally out of 430 colleges and universities in the 2003-04 all-sport National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) Directors’ Cup Division III standings. The award was formerly known as the Sears Directors’ Cup from 1995-2002. Cortland is the only New York school and one of only six nationwide to finish in the top 20 each of the last nine years. Since 1989, the Red Dragons have captured 12 NCAA Division III team titles.

The College offers its student-athletes excellent athletic facilities. The newly-constructed on-campus stadium features two artificial turf fields. One field seats 6,500 spectators, the other 1,500. The Cortland football, field hockey, men’s and women’s soccer, men’s and women’s lacrosse and men’s and women’s track and field teams are among those who utilize the facility, which the New York Times called “...a new stadium worthy of a major university power.”

The Bessie L. Park Physical Education and Recreation Center, opened in 1973, features the Whitney T. Corey Gymnasium with a 3,500 seating capacity; the Olympic-sized Harriet Holsten swimming pool with gallery seating for 1,500; the Alumni Ice Arena, a facility which can accommodate 2,500 spectators; a 500-seat gymnastics arena, racquetball and squash courts, a wrestling room, modern athletic training facilities and the state-of-the-art Francis Woods Fitness Facility.

Nearby Clayton R. Lusk Field House, with its tartan-textured surface, is home for the indoor track teams, varsity practice sessions and recreational activities. Cortland’s soccer teams play on T. Fred “Prof” Holloway Field, which has lights for night contests and newly installed bleachers. The College also has 22 outdoor tennis courts and two outdoor basketball courts and boasts Robert H. Wallace Field (baseball) and Dragon Field (softball) as part of its 51 acres of athletic fields.
