SUNY Cortland Women's Ice Hockey

vs. Trinity (CT); Saturday, February 15, 2003
at Hartford, Conn.

FINAL SCORE: Trinity 1, Cortland 0

HARTFORD, CONN. -- Sophomore Kristy Hadeka scored at 9:46 of the third period as Trinity (CT) defeated Cortland, 1-0, in women's ice hockey action Saturday night at Kingswood Oxford Rink in Hartford. With the loss, the Red Dragons fall to 4-13-1, while the Bantams improve to 3-12-2.

Junior Rachel Hutchinson (Canton/Potsdam Silver Blades) turned away 39 shots for Cortland in the loss. She stopped 24 shots alone in the second period, keeping the game scoreless. Freshman Courtney Bergh registered 25 saves in posting Trinity's first shutout of the season.

The two teams face each other on Sunday at 2:30 p.m.

WOMEN'S ICE HOCKEY: Trinity 1, Cortland 0

Score by periods:
Cortland 0-0-0 0
Trinity 0-0-1 1

Scoring Summary (Goals-Assists):
Cortland: none
Trinity: Kristy Hadeka 1-0, Tara Borawski 0-1, Jessica Keeley 0-1

Saves: Rachel Hutchinson (Cortland) 39 saves (1 GA in 60:00); Courtney Bergh (Trinity) 25 saves (0 GA in 60:00)
Shots on Goal: Cortland 25 (6-6-13), Trinity 40 (7-24-9)
Penalties: Cortland 6-12:00, Trinity 1-2:00
Power Play: Cortland 0-1, Trinity 0-6
Records after game: Cortland (Red Dragons) 4-13-1, Trinity (Bantams) 3-12-2