FINAL SCORE: Trinity 3, Cortland 1

HARTFORD, CONN. -- Trinity College scored three unanswered goals to claim a 3-1 win over Cortland in women's ice hockey action Sunday afternoon in Hartford, Connecticut. The win was the second in two days for Trinity (4-12-2) over Cortland (4-14-1).

The Red Dragons took a 1-0 lead on sophomore Melissa Manning’s (Syracuse/Syracuse Stars) power-play goal at 18:58 of the first period. Sophomore MaryAnn Knott (Levittown/Dix Hills Rebels) and senior Melisa Hohman (Fort Ann/Adirondack Northstars) assisted on the score. Trinity, however, quickly tied the game just 18 seconds later when freshman Jessica Keeley took a pass from Jillian Nelsen and beat Cortland junior goalie Rachel Hutchinson (Canton/Potsdam Silver Blades).

Freshman Tara Borawski gave the Bantams a 2-1 lead with her 15th goal of the season at 3:24 of the second period, and sophomore Kristy Hadeka finished the scoring with an unassisted goal at 4:52 of the third period.

Hutchinson stopped 37 shots for Cortland, while junior Mimi MacKinnon made 28 saves for Trinity.
