CORTLAND, N.Y. -- Freshman Jamie Longo (Staten Island/Northwood) scored two goals and added an assist and junior Jenn Clarke (Prescott, ON/Cornwall Int. AA) reached 100 career points with a goal and an assist to lead the nationally third-ranked Plattsburgh women's hockey team to a 7-1 win over Cortland Saturday afternoon. The Cardinals improved to 10-1 overall and 6-0 in the ECAC West with the win and swept the weekend series, while Cortland fell to 4-8 and 0-6.

The Red Dragons took an early 1-0 lead at 5:52 of the opening period. Senior Lindsay Davies (Pittsford/Rochester Americans) set up sophomore Daryl Pace (Homer/Ithaca Shooting Stars) in the slot, where she beat Plattsburgh junior goalie Breanne Doyle (Ogdensburg/Niagara University) with a low shot between the pads. The Cardinals answered quickly, tying the game less than a minute later on Longo’s first goal right in front of the crease. Longo then gave Plattsburgh the lead for good with an unassisted effort at 10:09 of the first period.

The Cardinals took control of the game in the second period with three goals for a 5-1 lead. Sophomore Jessica Moreau (Laval, QC/Northfield Mt. Hermon) scored the first of her two goals on the power play at 10:50, then senior Elizabeth Gibson (Bath, ON/Holy Cross Catholic) netted a power-play goal at 12:07. Clarke registered her 100th point (52 goals, 48 assists) at 18:45 of the second on an even-strength goal, her team-high 11th of the season.

The Cardinals added two goals in a penalty-filled third period. Moreau scored her second of the game at 14:00 on a wrist shot from the left face-off circle that eluded Cortland senior goalie Kelly Fillmore (Columbia Heights, MN/Bethel College). Freshman Abbie Vigue (Revelstoke, BC/North American Hockey Academy) finished the scoring with the first goal of her career on the power play at 18:48.

Fillmore finished with a season-high 50 saves, including 21 in the second period, for the Red Dragons, while Doyle stopped 17 shots for Plattsburgh.
