FINAL SCORE: Cortland 3, Oswego 3 (OT)

OSWEGO, N.Y. – Senior Cailin O’Hara (Rochester/Clarkson Univ.), junior Erin Fleury (Glens Falls/Troy-Albany Ice Cats) and sophomore Kalee Stoever (Pawling/Pawling Girls) each scored goals and sophomore Kristin Taylor (Syracuse/Camillus 19U) made 43 saves as Cortland opened its season with a 3-3 overtime tie at Oswego in an ECAC West contest. Cortland took the lead on three different occasions, only to have Oswego (2-0-1, 0-0-1 ECAC West) come back and tie the game each time.

Taylor made 15 saves in the third period and eight in the five-minute overtime to preserve the tie. Oswego was unable to score on a power play attempt that ran the last 59 seconds of regulation and the first minute and one second of overtime. Cortland was also assessed two penalties in overtime, but kept the Lakers off the board for the 3:31 shorthanded stretch that included a two-skater Oswego advantage for 29 seconds.

O’Hara scored the only goal of the first period with 3:40 remaining, assisted by sophomore Heather Crowley (Brasher Falls/National Sports Academy). The Lakers knotted the game 6:36 into the second period on a power play goal from Jessica Lister, assisted by Stephanie Esposito and Nicole Holman.

Fleury answered with her own power play goal with 4:14 left in the second. Junior Janie Byrd (Auburn/Ithaca Shooting Stars) and freshman Maggie Henty (Syracuse/Syracuse Stars) assisted on the goal. Oswego responded 1:25 later with an unassisted goal off the stick of Jessica O’Grady, her fourth of the season, to tie the game at 2-2.

Cortland took its final lead 3:04 into the third period with Stoever’s power play goal, assisted by junior Julia Pahler (Potsdam/North Country Ice Storm). The 3-2 margin held until Esposito tied the game with 7:29 left in regulation, off assists from Lister and Aprilyn Gush.

Oswego finished with a 46-25 advantage in shots on goal. The margin was only 22-18 after two periods, but the Lakers outshot the Red Dragons 16-7 in the third period and 8-0 in overtime. Oswego goalie Hilary Hitchman made 22 saves. The teams will meet again in Oswego on Feb. 11.
