2003 NCAA Division III Women’s Lacrosse Regional

Gettysburg College; Gettysburg, Pa.
SUNY Cortland vs. Amherst (MA)

FINAL SCORE: Amherst 20, Cortland 9

Gettysburg, Penn. -- The Cortland women’s lacrosse team, ranked 15th nationally in Division III, lost 20-9 to third-ranked Amherst in the second round of the NCAA Division playoffs hosted by Gettysburg College. With the loss, the Red Dragons finish their season with a 14-5 record, while Amherst improved to 15-2 and moves on to the regional finals to face host Gettysburg.

Cortland trailed 2-0 early in the game before sophomore Kerri Finn (West Islip) scored an unassisted goal at the 3:14 mark to cut the lead to 2-1. Amherst regained the two-goal lead, but Finn’s second goal of the game made it 3-2. The Jeffs, however, scored the next five goals to take an 8-2 lead late in the opening half. Sophomore Lauren Frisch (Nanuet) stopped the run with a free-position goal, but Amherst closed out the half with three more scored to take an 11-3 lead at intermission.

Junior Michelle Michaels (Syracuse) netted an unassisted goal at 30:35 to start the scoring in the second half. After Amherst answered with a goal, Michaels again found the back of the net and assisted on senior Lindsay Maynard’s (Nashua, NH) goal to cut the lead to 12-6. Cortland would get no closer as the Jeffs rattled off the next seven goals to take a commanding 19-6 lead.

Sophomore Kristie Anzalone (Glen Cove) broke Cortland’s scoring drought with just under eight minutes remaining. Finn and junior Elizabeth MacNabb (Baldwinsville/C.W. Baker) closed out the scoring for the Red Dragons with unassisted goals two and a half minutes apart.

Freshman Regina Grosso (Baldwinsville/C.W. Baker) started in goal for Cortland and made seven saves in 42:58 of action before giving way to sophomore Kristen Teter (East Islip), who stopped two shots in 17:02.
