SUNY Cortland junior midfielder Sara Gorman (Lindenhurst) has been selected to the Brine IWLCA/U.S. Lacrosse Division III Women's Lacrosse All-America second team for the 2003 season.

Gorman was also named to the Brine IWLCA/U.S. Lacrosse All-New York region first team and the All-New York State Women's Collegiate Athletic Association (NYSWCAA) first team. Junior attacker Elizabeth MacNabb (Baldwinsville/C.W. Baker) and freshman defender Erin Gallagher (Carthage) were both second team selections on the All-New York region and All-NYSWCAA teams. In addition, senior Lindsay Maynard (Nashua, NH) and freshman Regina Grosso (Baldwinsville/C.W. Baker) were selected to the All-NYSWCAA third team.

Gorman, the State University of New York Athletic Conference (SUNYAC) Player of the Year, scored 57 goals and dished out nine assists in 18 games for the Red Dragons. A late-season injury kept her out of the SUNYAC championship game and limited her playing time in Cortland's 20-9 loss to eventual national champion Amherst College (Mass.) in the NCAA Division III second round. Gorman led Cortland with 31 caused turnovers and 53 draw controls and was third on the club with 42 ground balls.

MacNabb was second on the team in scoring with 45 goals and 14 assists for 59 points. She tallied team-highs of five game-winning goals and 49 ground balls and also amassed 17 caused turnovers and 12 draw controls.

Gallagher started all 19 games this spring. She scored three goals, picked up 48 ground balls and caused 18 turnovers. Cortland’s defense allowed only 6.9 goals per game.

Maynard finished third on the team in scoring with 51 points on 28 goals and a team-high 23 assists. She also grabbed 34 ground balls and caused 13 turnovers in 19 starts.

Grosso was Cortland’s starting goalie in 18 of 19 games. She ranked 13th nationally in Division III with a 6.93 goals against average and made 105 saves.

The Red Dragons finished the season 14-5, including an 8-0 mark in SUNYAC regular season games. Cortland won its fifth straight conference tournament title and qualified for the NCAA Division III playoffs for the fifth straight year.
