FORT LAUDERDALE, FLA. -- The Cortland wrestling team improved its dual-match record to 6-2 with four victories at the Citrus Duals. The Red Dragons knocked off Lawrence University of Wisconsin 27-13, Johns Hopkins University 32-12, Pacific University of Oregon 30-11 and Coast Guard Academy 43-9.

At 125 pounds, Peck pinned his opponent from Lawrence and earned an 18-1 technical fall versus Johns Hopkins. He won by forfeit in his other two matches. Serrano posted four decisions, two each at 149 pounds and 157 pounds. He earned a 13-5 major decision against Coast Guard at 149.

Slate won two matches at 165 and two at 174. He pinned his opponents from Lawrence and Johns Hopkins, won a 3-2 overtime decision versus Pacific after escaping in the 30-second sudden-death period, and won by forfeit against Coast Guard. Locke pinned his opponent all three times he stepped on the mat, including the first two at heavyweight. His final win came by forfeit versus Coast Guard. Misener won 7-5 over Johns Hopkins and 12-10 versus Pacific in matches at 149 pounds and picked up a forfeit win at 157 in the Coast Guard match.

Cortland trailed Lawrence 10-9 after five matches before Slate’s pin started a three-match run that helped the Red Dragons earn the victory. A Peck technical fall and a pin by sophomore Mike Hartle (Gouverneur) staked Cortland to an early 11-0 lead versus Johns Hopkins and the Red Dragons never looked back. Cortland won six of the first seven matches against Pacific. Six of Cortland’s wins over Coast Guard came by forfeit.
