SUNY Cortland vs. SUNY Brockport
Wednesday, December 3, 2003; Tuttle North Gymnasium; Brockport, N.Y.

FINAL SCORE: Brockport 31, Cortland 2

BROCKPORT, N.Y. – The SUNY Brockport wrestling team, ranked fourth nationally in Division III, defeated 14th-ranked Cortland, 31-2, at Tuttle North Gymnasium. Brockport won nine of the 10 bouts for the night. The Golden Eagles are 1-0 in dual matches this season. Cortland is now 5-1.

Cortland lost its opening match on Danny Song’s pin at 141 pounds and had a team point deducted after the match for unsportmanlike conduct. The Red Dragons tried to gain back momentum in the next match, but freshman Troy Tooley (Kendall) lost 5-3 on a takedown 12 seconds into overtime.

At 157 pounds, Brockport’s Andy Boice upset Cortland’s Brent Rider (Tioga Center/Tioga) by an 8-3 score. Rider is ranked third nationally in Division III. The Golden Eagles followed that with a victory by second-ranked Artie Weidler at 165 pounds and a 16-6 major decision by Mario Schiano at 174 pounds. At 184 pounds, Rich D’Amico edged eighth-ranked Ben Locke (Bainbridge/Bainbridge-Guilford), 5-3, and the Golden Eagles also picked up wins from second-ranked Rob Cuffie at 197 pounds and Duncan Iannucci at heavyweight.

Cortland’s lone victory came at 125 pounds in a matchup of two ranked wrestlers as sophomore Jason Peck (Montgomery/Valley Central), ranked fifth nationally, earned a 7-5 win over sixth-ranked Salvador Cruz. Brockport concluded the match with a 9-4 win by Tony D’Ambra at 133 pounds.
