OSWEGO, N.Y. – Ranked 16th nationally in Division III, Cortland finished 3-0 at the New York/Pennsylvania Duals, hosted by SUNY Oswego. The wins included an 18-16 win over 19th-ranked Lycoming College and a 30-12 win versus 22nd-ranked King's College, along with a 39-12 win over Scranton. Cortland was the only school at the six-team event with a 3-0 record. The Red Dragons are now 10-4.

Lycoming and King's each finished with 2-1 marks. The New York schools (Cortland, Oswego, RIT) finished with a 5-4 record versus the Pennsylvania schools.

The marquee matchup in Cortland's win over King's was a 2-1 victory by sophomore Jason Peck (Montgomery/Valley Central) over Mitch Marks at 125 pounds. Peck is ranked fifth nationally at 125 and Marks is ranked second.

Cortland won seven of 10 matches in both the King's and Scranton matches. In their two-point win over Lycoming, the Red Dragons took an early 5-0 lead on a Peck technical fall. A major decision by sophomore Jason Chase (Rush/Rush-Henrietta) at 141 and wins by junior Brent Rider (Tioga Center/Tioga) at 157 and junior Matt Slate (Gouverneur) at 165 gave Cortland a 15-6 lead. Junior Ben Locke (Bainbridge/Bainbridge-Guilford) posted a win at 184 to put Cortland ahead 18-9. Lycoming won the last two matches, but could not get the pin it needed to tie the match.

Peck, Chase, Rider and Locke all finished the day with 3-0 records and Slate was 2-0.
