OLIVET, MICH. – Cortland was one of two schools, along with defending NCAA Division III champion Wartburg College of Iowa, to finish with a 5-0 record at the 10-team Olivet College Comet Wrestling Duals. The Red Dragons defeated Manchester (Ind.), 31-10, Wisconsin-Platteville, 19-15, Wabash (Ind.), 26-9, Mount Union (Ohio), 23-12, and Rose-Hulman (Ind.), 41-6. Wartburg posted wins over Mount Union, Lycoming (Pa.), Olivet, Manchester and Wisconsin-Platteville.

Sophomore Jaret Misener (Schoharie) finished 4-1, wrestling three matches at 157 pounds and two at 149. He recorded a technical fall in his match versus Rose-Hulman, and his only loss was a 13-11 decision to Wabash.

Sophomore Jason Peck (Montgomery/Valley Central), ranked fifth nationally at 125 pounds, was 3-0 with two technical falls. Junior Matt Slate (Gouverneur) finished 3-0 with two major decisions at 165 pounds. Four other Red Dragons – freshman Troy Tooley (Kendall) at 149 and 157 pounds, junior Ben Locke (Bainbridge/Bainbridge-Guilford) at 184 pounds, senior Jake Armstrong (Walton) at 197 pounds and senior heavyweight Jason Lichtenstein (Middletown) – each finished with three victories.

Lichtenstein’s 3-2 win versus Platteville clinched Cortland’s victory as the Red Dragons led 16-15 entering his match. Locke is ranked eighth nationally in Division III.
