WILLIAMSPORT, PA. - Cortland finished with a 1-2 record at the New York/Pennsylvania Duals, hosted by Lycoming College. The Red Dragons (3-8) lost 33-12 to the nationally 19th-ranked host school and dropped a 24-22 decision to Scranton before defeating King’s College, 31-18.

Cortland actually won 15 of the 24 individual matches it actually competed in, but surrendered 12 points in each match with forfeits at both 125 and 133 pounds.

Junior Jason Chase (Rush/Rush-Henrietta) won all three of his matches at 141 pounds -- one by pin, one by technical fall and one by major decision. He became the 17th wrestler in school history to reach the career 70-win mark. His overall collegiate record is 70-41, including a 14-7 record this season.

Sophomore Stef Sair (Huntington) went 2-0 with a major decision at 174 pounds in his first action of the season. Sair is a free safety on Cortland’s football team and did not wrestle during the first semester. Sophomore heavyweight Mike Karbowiak (Patchogue/Patchogue-Medford) was 2-1 on the day, including one pin. Freshman Mark Maglione (Saratoga Springs) finished 2-1 with a major decision. He was 1-1 at 184 pounds and won his match versus King’s, 13-2, at 197 pounds.

Senior 174-pounder Trevor Comeau (Fultonville/Fonda-Fultonville) and freshman 184-pounder Treavor LeBlanc (Morrisville/Morrisville-Eaton) were each 1-0 with a pin and senior Brent Rider (Tioga Center/Tioga) won his only match of the day at 165 pounds. Junior149-pounder John Franchi (Elmira Heights/Thomas A. Edison), sophomore 197-pounder Matt Eldredge (Canandaigua/Marcus Whitman) and sophomore 157-pounder Troy Tooley (Kendall) were each 1-1 at the competition. Tooley’s win was by pin.
