SUNY Cortland Wrestling

Day 2 of Budd Whitehill Duals
Saturday, January 14, 2006; Lamade Gymnasium
Lycoming College; Williamsport, Pa.

WILLIAMSPORT, PA. – Cortland, ranked 13th nationally in Division III, finished fourth out of 20 teams at the Budd Whitehill Wrestling Duals at Lycoming College. The Red Dragons (8-3) lost to sixth-ranked and top-seeded College of New Jersey, 18-15, in the semifinals and dropped a 28-11 decision to Lycoming in the third-place match. Loras College won the tournament with a 25-9 win over New Jersey in the finals.

Cortland won four of the first seven matches to take a 15-9 lead versus New Jersey, but the Lions won the final three matches, including a 6-0 win at heavyweight that broke a 15-15 tie. Three of Cortland’s losses came by one point.

Freshman Ryan Gadsby (Auburn) opened the match with an 8-6 upset win over Brian Dempsey, who is ranked third nationally at 125 pounds. Freshman Paul LeBlanc (Morrisville/Morrisville-Eaton) earned a 15-0 technical fall at 141 pounds to give the Red Dragons an 8-3 lead. LeBlanc is ranked seventh nationally in his weight class.

Cortland’s other wins were senior Jason Chase’s (Rush/Rush-Henrietta) 3-2 decision at 149 pounds and junior Stef Sair’s (Huntington) 15-7 major decision at 174 pounds. Sair is ranked first nationally at 174 pounds and is now 9-0 on the season.

Gadsby started the Lycoming match with a pin in 4:14, but Lycoming won seven of the final nine matches versus primarily Cortland’s reserves. Junior John Franchi (Elmira Heights/Thomas A. Edison) earned a 5-0 victory at 157 pounds and junior Mario Schiano (Rochester/Gates-Chili) won 4-2 at 184 pounds.
