Three Cortland Women’s Soccer Players Earn All-Region Honors; All-State and All-League Honors Also Earned

Three members of the SUNY Cortland women's soccer team have been chosen to the 2002 National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA) Northeast Region all-star team. Senior forward Mandy DaRin (LIVERPOOL) is a second team selection. Junior defender Jen Crook (FULTON/G. Ray Bodley) and junior midfielder Jodie Gabel (GLEN ROCK, NJ) are both on the third team.

DaRin, Gabel and Crook have also been selected to the New York State Women's Collegiate Athletic Association (NYSWCAA) all-star team along with senior goalie Ali Gray (COMMACK). Six Red Dragons were chosen to the State University of New York Athletic Conference (SUNYAC) all-star squad. DaRin, Crook, Gabel and Gray were first-team selections. Sophomore forward Angela Bruno (SYRACUSE/West Genesee) and freshman midfielder Kelsey Geary (OGDENSBURG) were second-team honorees.

Cortland finished the season 10-7-1, including a second-place SUNYAC regular-season record of 8-2. The Red Dragons reached the 10-win mark for the sixth straight year and the 19th time in 20 years.

DaRin finished the season with nine goals and four assists for 22 points. She shared the team lead in both goals and total points. DaRin completed her career 10th on Cortland's career scoring chart with 72 points (31 goals, 10 assists). Crook registered three goals and one assist in 18 games in addition to helping the Red Dragons allow just 20 goals in 18 games. Gabel recorded seven goals and four assists for 18 points.

Gray started all 18 games for the Red Dragons. She had a 1.18 goals against average and an 85.5 save percentage. She finished the season with two solo shutouts and combined on five others. Bruno shared the team scoring lead with DaRin with nine goals and four assists for 22 points. Five of Bruno's goals were game winners. Geary scored twice this fall and led the team with seven assists. She finished fourth on the team with 11 points.
