University of Rochester vs. SUNY Cortland
Tuesday, September 10, 2002; Holloway Field; Cortland, N.Y.

FINAL SCORE: Rochester 2, Cortland 0

CORTLAND, N.Y. – Junior forward Alison Collins (Denver, CO/Denver East) scored two goals less than two minutes apart early in the second half to lead nationally 19th-ranked Rochester over host Cortland Tuesday night at Holloway Field. With the win, Rochester improves to 4-0, while Cortland drops to 1-2.

After a scoreless first half, Collins took a pass from sophomore forward Kristin Kelly (Albuquerque, NM/Sandia Prep) at the top of the box and lofted a high 20-yard shot off the hands of Cortland senior goalie Ali Gray (Commack) and into the net. Less than two minutes later, Collins struck again with her fifth goal of the season as she curled an 18-yard shot off the right post in the 52nd minute.

Despite being outshot 10-5 in the first half, Cortland had the best scoring chance of the opening 45 minutes. Senior defender Jen Crook (Fulton/G. Ray Bodley) unleashed a solid header on goal off a corner kick from junior Jodie Gabel (Glen Rock, NJ/Glen Rock), but Yellowjacket junior goalie Sarah Malecki (Binghamton/Johnson City) denied the bid.

Rochester outshot the Red Dragons 23-8 in the game and held a 6-2 advantage in corner kicks.

Malecki made four saves for Rochester, while Gray stopped seven shots for Cortland. The Red Dragons return to action on Saturday when they host nationally-ranked Nazareth at 7:00 p.m. at Holloway Field.
