SUNY New Paltz vs. SUNY Cortland
Tuesday, November 2, 2004; Holloway Field; Cortland, N.Y.

FINAL SCORE: Cortland 2, New Paltz 1

CORTLAND, N.Y. – Senior Bonnie McMillan (Massapequa) scored the game-winning goal in the 53rd minute to lead the Cortland women’s soccer team to a 2-1 win over New Paltz in a SUNYAC quarterfinal game Tuesday afternoon at Holloway Field. With the win, the Red Dragons (8-9-2) advance to the semifinals at the Hall of Fame Fields, Oneonta, where they’ll face second-seeded Plattsburgh (14-4) Friday at 1:30 p.m. The Hawks fell to 7-10-3 with the loss.

New Paltz started the game strong, controlling possession early on, and capitalized on its first shot of the game. Freshman Lauren Martel (West Sayville/Sayville) pushed a pass to junior Amanda Picarelli (Miller Place) at the top of the box. Picarelli one-timed a floating left-footed shot that went over Cortland senior goalie Christa Windhorst (Lancaster) and just under the crossbar in the fourth minute.

The teams, which played to a 0-0 double-overtime tie earlier in the season at New Paltz, played evenly for the next 10 minutes before Cortland began to take over the play. The Red Dragons eventually tied the game in the 41st minute. Junior Kelsey Geary (Ogdensburg) carried the ball down the right side and took a shot from 15 yards out that deflected off a New Paltz defender. The ball bounced toward the left post where junior Marie Valentino (Ithaca) knocked a shot past New Paltz senior goalie Maggie Fenton (East Meadow) to knot the game at 1-1.

The entire second half belonged to the Red Dragons, as they outshot the Hawks, 16-0, in the final 45 minutes. Constant pressure by Cortland finally paid off in the 53rd minute. Sophomore Andrea Marino (Utica/Mount Markham) slid a through ball on the right side to McMillan, who ran onto the pass and put a shot inside the right post for the game winner.

The Red Dragons controlled the play for the remainder of the game and had several bids for additional goals either turned aside by Fenton or just miss the goal. Fenton finished the game with nine saves for New Paltz, while Windhorst did not have to stop a shot for Cortland.
