UTICA, N.Y. – Cortland scored three second-half goals to post a 3-0 victory at SUNY Institute of Technology in the State University of New York Athletic Conference (SUNYAC) opener for both teams. The Red Dragons are 2-3-1 overall, while the Wildcats are now 0-3.

Junior goalie Katie Killion (Amherst/Williamsville North) posted her first collegiate shutout with four saves, two in each half.

Cortland took the lead when senior Angela Bruno (Syracuse/West Genesee) scored off an assist from junior Gabby Hajduk (Pearl River). The goal was Bruno’s third of the season. The lead grew to 2-0 when sophomore Andrea Marino (Utica/Mount Markham) tallied off assists from Bruno and freshman Shelly VanDusen (Schuyler/West Canada Valley).

VanDusen finished the scoring with her first collegiate goal, set up by junior Kelsey Geary (Ogdensburg). Cortland took 23 shots in the contest to five for the Wildcats.
