SUNY Cortland vs. Swarthmore College
Swarthmore Kick Off Classic - Opening Round
Saturday, September 4, 2004; Swarthmore, Pa.

FINAL SCORE: Cortland 2, Swarthmore 0

SWARTHMORE, PA. – Senior forward Angela Bruno (Syracuse/West Genesee) and junior forward Marie Valentino (Ithaca) each registered a goal and an assist as Cortland defeated host Swarthmore, 2-0, in the opening round of the Swarthmore Kick Off Classic. Cortland (1-1) will face Widener University of Pennsylvania in the championship game Sunday at noon. Widener defeated Alvernia, 3-1, in Saturday’s first game.

The victory is the first collegiate win for Cortland’s Heidi Woodcock, who took over this season as the Red Dragons’ interim head coach.

All of the scoring in the contest occurred in the first 10 minutes. Bruno took a feed from Valentino and scored 4:43 into the game. Bruno returned the favor just under five minutes later, setting up a Valentino goal at the 9:39 mark.

Cortland outshot Swarthmore by a 17-6 margin and earned all three of the game’s corner kicks. Red Dragon senior goalie Christa Windhorst (Lancaster) made two saves for the shutout. Swartmore goalie Kristen Traband stopped three shots in the first half and Rachel Jordan made three saves in the second half.
