SWARTHMORE, PA. – SUNY Cortland and Widener University played to a 0-0 tie in the championship game of the Swarthmore College Women's Soccer Kick Off Classic. Widener was named the tournament champion after outscoring Cortland in penalty kicks, 3-2. The game, however, is officially considered a tie. Swarthmore defeated Alvernia, 2-1, in the consolation game.

Senior goalie Christa Windhorst (Lancaster) made two saves over 90 minutes of regulation and two 10-minute sudden-victory overtime periods for her second straight shutout. She was one of four Cortland players named to the 12-player all-tournament team. Also on the all-tournament team were junior forward Marie Valentino (Ithaca), who had a goal and an assist in Cortland's 2-0 win over Swarthmore on Saturday, freshman defender Colleen Martin (Centereach/Ward Melville) and junior defender Gabby Hajduk (Pearl River).

Cortland (1-1-1) outshot Widener (1-0-1) by a 10-3 margin, but couldn't put the ball past Pioneer goalie Kelli Quinn. Quinn finished with four saves.

The Red Dragons return to action on Tuesday, Sept. 7, hosting Elmira College at 7 p.m.
