Cortland's Katie Trivisonno Named SUNYAC Women's Soccer Rookie of the Year; Four Red Dragons on All-Conference Squad

SUNY Cortland freshman forward Katie Trivisonno (Apalachin/Owego Free Academy) has been chosen as the 2005 State University of New York Athletic Conference (SUNYAC) Women's Soccer Rookie of the Year in a vote of the league's coaches.

Trivisonno was also one of four Red Dragon players named to the SUNYAC all-league squad. Senior midfielder Kelsey Geary (Ogdensburg) was chosen to the first team, Trivisonno and sophomore defender Colleen Martin (Centereach/Ward Melville) were second-team selections and sophomore midfielder Ilona Szotyori (Saugerties) was honorable mention.

Trivisonno led Cortland this season with 11 goals and seven assists for 29 points. Her point total is the highest by a Red Dragon freshman since Kim Berglund's 33 points in 1986. Trivisonno recorded at least one point in each of her first seven collegiate games and 10 of her first 11 contests.

Geary scored five goals and assisted on four others this fall, including two goals and an assist during Cortland's three SUNYAC tournament games. She finished her career with 13 goals and 25 assist for 51 points and ranks fourth in assists and tied for 20th in points on Cortland's all-time charts.

Martin recorded one goal and two assists in 21 games, 18 as a starter. She also helped lead a defense that posted seven shutouts and held opponents to one goal or less 11 times. Szotyori (pronounced Soh-tree) registered three goals and one assist. She scored the game-winning goal in a 2-0 victory versus Brockport and tallied Cortland's lone goal in a loss to Oneonta in the SUNYAC championship game.

Cortland finished the season with a 12-9 overall record. The Red Dragons placed third in the SUNYAC regular season with a 7-3 mark and advanced to the league tournament finals for a second straight season.
