Ithaca College vs. SUNY Cortland
Tuesday, October 11, 2005; Holloway Field; Cortland, N.Y.

FINAL SCORE: Ithaca 2, Cortland 1

CORTLAND, N.Y. – Sophomore Colleen Masterson (Trumansburg) scored two second-half goals four minutes, 50 seconds apart to lead the Ithaca women's soccer team to a 2-1 victory over Cortland Tuesday afternoon at Holloway Field. With the loss, the Red Dragons fell to 8-5 on the season, while Bombers won their 10th consecutive game and improved to 10-1-1.

Ithaca tied the game in the 77th minute. Sophomore Mallory Gilman (Orefield, PA/Parkland) put a long shot on goal that Cortland senior goalie Katie Killion (Amherst/Williamsville North) saved. The ball rebounded to Masterson, who beat Killion in close. In the 82nd minute, Masterson connected on the game winner. Freshman Hannah Laman-Maharg (State College, PA/State College) fed a long pass to Masterson on the right side. She cut back inside just outside of the box and deposited a shot into the upper left corner from 20 yards out for her team-high eighth goal of the season.

Cortland pressed for the tying goal late, receiving two corner kicks in the game's final minutes, but couldn't get a clean shot at the Ithaca goal.

Killion made three saves for the Red Dragons, who outshot the Bombers, 18-10. Meacham stopped six shots for Ithaca, including five in the opening half.
