Nazareth College vs. SUNY Cortland
Tuesday, September 20, 2005; Holloway Field; Cortland, N.Y.

FINAL SCORE: Cortland 3, Nazareth 0

CORTLAND, N.Y. – Freshmen Kayla Sweet (Fonda/Fonda-Fultonville) and Katie Trivisonno (Apalachin/Owego Free Academy) each scored a goal and added an assist as the Cortland women's soccer team defeated Nazareth, 3-0, Tuesday night at Holloway Field. The win for the Red Dragons was their first versus the Golden Flyers since 1998 and raised their record to 4-2. The loss dropped Nazareth to 4-3 on the season.

Nazareth controlled much of the play, outshooting Cortland, 22-10, but the Red Dragons were able to capitalize on their chances. Sweet set up the game's first goal in the 28th minute. She carried the ball through the middle and sent a pass to the left side of the box, where sophomore Mandy Womelsdorf (Buffalo/West Seneca West) put a shot inside the right post from 12 yards out.

Nazareth responded with two good chances in the final 10 minutes of the first half. Junior Jessemyn Russell (Stillwater) struck a shot from 12 yards out after a corner kick that appeared headed inside the left post in the 35th minute. Cortland sophomore goalie Shannon Burrows (Rochester/Honeoye Falls-Lima) scrambled back into position and made a diving stop to keep the Golden Flyers off the scoreboard. In the 41st minute, sophomore Caity Richardson (Pittsford/Pittsford Mendon) drilled a 10-yard header solidly off the crossbar, but Cortland was able to clear the ball out of the box.

Less than six minutes into the second half, Sweet made it 2-0 as she one-timed a cross from Trivisonno past Nazareth sophomore goalie Shannon Burns (Albany/Colonie). Trivisonno threaded a pass from the right side that Sweet drilled in from eight yards out. The Golden Flyers pressured the Red Dragons throughout much of the second half, but Burrows continued to make big saves. She denied senior Kristina Cristofori’s (Fairport) 15-yard shot at the left post in the 52nd minute and turned away Richardson’s point-blank shot at the right post in the 78th minute.

Three minutes later, Trivisonno, who has registered at least one point in every game this season, scored her team-high sixth goal of the season to seal the win. After a Nazareth foul, sophomore Colleen Martin (Centerereach/Ward Melville) sent a long ball toward Nazareth’s box. Trivisonno ran onto the pass and beat Burns one-on-one. In the 81st minute.

Burrows finished with seven saves for Cortland, including five in the second half, while Burns stopped one shot for Nazareth.
