Womelsdorf opened the scoring in the fourth minute when she one-timed a cross from sophomore Colleen Martin (Centereach/Ward Melville). Trivisonno set up Cerroni’s goal from the left side of the box in the 28th minute, then Hadzicki made it a 3-0 game as she stole the ball from a SUNYIT defender in the box and sent a shot over Remchuk from 10 yards out.

Cortland pushed its lead to 4-0 in the 62nd minute on Trivisonno’s team-high fourth goal of the season off Womelsdorf’s assist.
