2005 Season Preview

Last season, the Cortland women’s soccer team welcomed a new head coach and 12 new members to the team. The Red Dragons proceeded to reach the SUNYAC finals on the strength of timely offense and a stellar goalkeeper. In 2005, second-year head coach Heidi Woodcock again has a multitude of new faces — 10 in all — and designs on reaching the conference title game. The team, however, has to fill some key positions in order to make this season a success.

Lost to graduation is goalkeeper Christa Windhorst, a second team all-region selection and the NYSWCAA Defensive Player of the Year in 2004. Windhorst started 20-of-21 games last season and posted an .832 save percentage and seven shutouts. Woodcock’s two goalies vying for playing time this season saw limited action in 2004 but have worked hard to fill the void. Senior captain Katie Killion recorded a shutout with four saves in a win over conference foe SUNYIT in her one appearance last season. She’s seen action in 12 career games and has registered an .864 save percentage and a 0.55 GAA, so she’s proven that she can get the job done. In 2004, sophomore Shannon Burrows came off the bench to appear in 15 games with six starts and scored one goal.

The Red Dragons return four players on defense. Junior captain Kendra Ryerson played in 19 games with seven starts last season. She’s capable of holding down an outside position with her quickness and ability to dispossess opponents. Senior captain Katie Dunn became a mainstay on the left side in 2004, starting 10 games and appearing in 17. Her experience makes her a valuable asset on the back line. Sophomore Colleen Martin, who saw action in 18 games with eight starts last season, is blessed with speed and athleticism and will play a factor on defense. Sophomore Kalli Anctil played in five games in 2004 and adds a hard-nosed attitude to the group.

Woodcock has added three freshmen defenders to the squad. Caitlin Cimino is a tall central defender who earned all-state honors as a senior at Chittenango High School. Danielle Hoehn was a four-year starting left defender at Seaord High and was an all-conference selection as a senior. Jerrica Lovett was a three-time all-league selection and an all-state player at Liverpool High School.

Of the eight midfielders on the roster, five are returners. Senior captain Kelsey Geary leads the group. Geary, who started all 21 games, earned first team All-NYSWCAA and All-SUNYAC honors last season after scoring eight points on three goals and two assists. She enters the season with 37 career points and could make a run at cracking Cortland’s top-20 all-time scoring list. Sophomore Ilona Szotyori also started all 21 games in 2004. She scored a pair of goals, including one game winner, and is a physical presence at both ends of the field. Junior Marie Valentino, who moves to midfield from forward, saw action in every game with 10 starts last season and scored seven points on two goals and three assists. Sophomore Shelly Van Dusen started 16 of the 21 games in 2004 and recorded seven points on two goals and three assists. Sophomore Meredith Petrecki appeared in 15 games with six starts and scored one goal.

Newcomers in the midfield include freshmen Alyssa Cerroni, Krista Circelli and Kayla Sweet. Circelli comes to Cortland having been a first team Tri-Valley league all-star at New Hartford. Sweet is a proven scorer who was the Section Two Class B Player of the Year and a first team all-state selection as a senior.

Only one player returns at forward, where the Red Dragons lost their top-two scorers from a year ago. Sophomore Kelly Perkins picked up an assist in eight games last season and works for more time on the field in 2005. Sophomore transfer Britt Warren was the second-leading scorer at William Smith last season and could add instant offense. Sophomore Mandy Womelsdorf enters her first year with the program having been a four-year starter at West Seneca West High School, where she was a two-time ECIC Division One All-Star. Freshman Katie Trivisonno was a three-year starter and all-state performer at Owego Free Academy, and freshman Kiley Hadzicki, who was a third team all-state selection as a senior at Portville Central, adds size up front.

If the Red Dragons are going to make a return trip to the SUNYAC championship game, they’ll need plenty of contributions from the newcomers and solid goalkeeping from Burrows and Killion. The offense needs to run through Geary, while the experience of Ryerson and Dunn on the back line is imperative in limiting quality scoring chances.

Junior Marie Valentino has been moved from forward to midfield for the 2005 season.

The Red Dragons return four players on defense. Junior captain Kendra Ryerson will hold down the right defender position for the Red Dragons in 2005.
Coaching Staff

Heidi Woodcock
Head Coach

Heidi Woodcock enters her second season as the head coach of the Cortland women’s soccer program after serving as an assistant coach for the Red Dragons during the spring of 2004. Prior to Cortland, Woodcock coached the Liverpool High School girls’ junior varsity soccer team in the fall of 2003 and was an assistant coach for the bronze medal-winning Central Region women’s open soccer team at the 2004 Empire State Games.

Last season, the Red Dragons compiled a 9-10-2 record and reached the finals of the SUNYAC Tournament. Three of Woodcock’s players earned all-state honors including the NYSWCAA Defensive Player of the Year.

Woodcock is a 2002 graduate of Nazareth College, where she earned her bachelor’s degree in psychology and was a starting sweeper for the nationally ranked women’s soccer program. As a senior, she was named a second team All-American and the Empire 8 Player of the Year. Woodcock was also a two-time all-region and three-time all-state and all-conference selection.

A native of Liverpool, N.Y., Woodcock graduated from Liverpool High School in 1998. She earned all-state, All-Central New York and all-league honors in soccer and was a member of the track and field team.

Woodcock and her husband, Brett, a former Le Moyne College baseball player, currently reside in Liverpool.

Melissa Buonvecchio
Assistant Coach

Melissa Buonvecchio enters her second season as an assistant coach for the Cortland women’s soccer program in 2005.

Buonvecchio earned a Bachelor of Arts degree from William Smith College in 2003. She was a four-year member of the women’s soccer team as a goalkeeper and received the Aliceann Wilber and Melissa Mulliken Awards during her playing career. In 2003, the team reached the NCAA final four. Buonvecchio also played guard on the Herons’ women’s basketball team for two seasons.

Buonvecchio, who currently resides in East Syracuse, N.Y., graduated from East Syracuse-Minoa High School in 1999, where she competed in soccer, basketball and softball.

Andrea Marino
Volunteer Assistant

Andrea Marino steps in as a volunteer assistant and team manager for the Cortland women’s soccer team during the 2005 season.

Marino played in 39 games with 32 starts during her freshman and sophomore seasons at Cortland. She was second on the team in scoring with 21 points as a freshman and was named the SUNYAC First Year Player of the Year. As a sophomore, Marino was second on the team with 12 points and was an honorable mention All-SUNYAC selection.

Marino, a physical education major at Cortland, is currently rehabilitating an injury suffered during the offseason.

2004 Game-by-Game Recaps

William Smith 3, Cortland 0
(Sept. 1; Geneva NY)
William Smith scored a pair of first-half goals and added a third score in the 63rd minute in the opener for both teams. Christa Windhorst made eight saves for the Red Dragons, who were outshot, 17-5, by the 21st-ranked Herons.

Cortland 2, Swarthmore 0
(Sept. 4; Swarthmore, PA; Swarthmore Kick Off Classic)
The Red Dragons wasted little time in siezing control of the game. Marie Valentino registered her first point as a Red Dragon when she assisted on Angela Bruno's goal in the fifth minute and scored her first goal off a Bruno assist in the 10th minute. Cortland outshot Swarthmore, 17-6. Christa Windhorst made two saves to earn the shutout.

Cortland 0, Widener 0
(Sept. 5; Swarthmore, PA; Swarthmore Kick Off Classic)
Christa Windhorst extended her shutout streak to more than 225 minutes in the championship game at Swarthmore. Widener, however, was declared the champion after winning in penalty kicks, 3-2. Windhorst made two saves and was named to the All-Tournament Team along with Gabby Hajduk, Colleen Martin and Marie Valentino.

Elmira 2, Cortland 1
(Sept. 7; Cortland, NY)
After a scoreless first half, Angela Bruno gave the Red Dragons a 1-0 lead in the 67th minute with a 20-yard shot that curled inside the right post. Shelly VanDusen picked up her first career point with the assist. Elmira answered three minutes later on a rebound goal, and just as it seemed the game was headed to overtime, the Pioneers netted the game winner on a breakaway with 2:22 remaining.

Nazareth 1, Cortland 0
(Sept. 11; Rochester, NY)
Christa Windhorst kept the Red Dragons in the game with a career-high 18 saves, which fell one short of the school record held by Margot Weille, as head coach Heidi Woodcock faced her alma mater. The game's lone goal came in the 40th minute on a shot from the top of the box.

Cortland 3, SUNYIT 0
(Sept. 15; Utica, NY)
The Red Dragons started slowly in their SUNYAC opener, waiting until the second half to find the back of the net. Angelo Bruno and Shelly VanDusen each had a goal and an assist and Andrea Marino also scored. VanDusen's goal, set up by Kelsey Geary, was the first of her career. Katie Killion made four saves to record her first collegiate shutout for the Red Dragons, who outshot the Wildcats, 23-5.

St. Lawrence 3, Cortland 1
(Sept. 18; Cortland, NY)
Angela Bruno tallied her team-high fourth goal of the season in the ninth minute to give Cortland an early lead. Kelsey Geary sent a 30-yard free kick into the box that Marie Valentino headed down to Bruno, who sent a low shot under the Saints' goalie. St. Lawrence tied the game in the 22nd minute, scored the game winner in the 39th minute and added an insurance goal in the 64th minute.

Cortland 2, Brockport 1
(Sept. 24; Brockport, NY)
Cortland made two first-half goals stand up and improved to 2-0 in the conference with the road victory. Angela Bruno scored on a header off Shelly VanDusen's serve from the corner in the 13th minute, and Michelle Lauria set up Kelsey Geary's first goal of the season in the 28th minute. Brockport converted a penalty kick on its only shot of the second half in the 80th minute to tighten the score, but Cortland was never threatened in the game's final minutes.

Cortland 1, Geneseo 0
(Sept. 25; Geneseo, NY)
Angela Bruno connected for her sixth goal and third game-winning score of the season in the 53rd minute after a scramble in front, and Christa Windhorst made eight saves to post her third shutout of the season as the Red Dragons improved to 4-4-1 overall and 3-0 in the SUNYAC. Seven of Windhorst's saves came in the game's final 45 minutes.

Cortland 1, Fredonia 0
(Oct. 1; Cortland, NY)
Ilona Szotyori's first career goal off Andrea Marino's cross from the left in the 64th minute was enough to lift the Red Dragons to their third win in a row. Kelsey Geary initiated the game-winning score with a long pass to Marino down the left side. Christa Windhorst stopped three shots, including a dangerous header off a corner kick in the 65th minute, for her fourth shutout of the season.
2004 Game-by-Game Recaps

Cortland 2, Buffalo St. 0
(Oct. 2; Cortland, NY)
Cortland improved to 5-0 in the conference for the first time since 1993 when the Red Dragons finished 5-0 in the SUNYAC East. Christa Windhorst made three saves and posted her third straight shutout and fifth of the season. Angela Bruno set up Andrea Marino's game-winning goal in the fourth minute, and Marino assisted on Ilona Szotyori's insurance goal in the 90th minute to seal the win.

Cortland 0, New Paltz 0 (2OT)
(Oct. 8; New Paltz, NY)
Christa Windhorst, who finished the game with four saves, extended her shutout streak to 390:29 and the Red Dragons ran their unbeaten streak to five games with the tie. Cortland nearly won the game as time was winding down in the second extra session when Andrea Marino's shot deflected off a New Paltz defender, trickled off the post and went out of play.

Oneonta 1, Cortland 0
(Oct. 9; Oneonta, NY)
Fourth-ranked Oneonta outshot the Red Dragons, 30-5, but managed just one goal in the 11th minute. Christa Windhorst came up big for Cortland, making 15 saves to keep the Red Dragons in the game. Her shutout streak came to an end after 401:19. Kelsey Geary's bid to tie the game in the 75th was denied by the Oneonta goalkeeper.

Ithaca 1, Cortland 0
(Oct. 12; Ithaca, NY)
The Red Dragons suffered another tough loss when Ithaca netted the winning goal with just 1:59 remaining in the game. Christa Windhorst came up with another solid game in goal, stopping six shots.

Plattsburgh 2, Cortland 1 (OT)
(Oct. 15; Cortland, NY)
With the Red Dragons facing what appeared to be certain defeat, Angela Bruno one-timed Marie Valentino's cross from the left for the game-tying goal with just 33 seconds remaining in regulation. Unfortunately for Cortland, the Cardinals snuck a 25-yard free kick through traffic and inside the right post 6:05 into overtime to earn the win and hold onto second place in the conference.

Cortland 7, Potsdam 2
(Oct. 16; Cortland, NY)
The Red Dragons shook off their offensive doldrums with a five-goal outburst in the first half versus the Bears. For the game, six different players scored goals, including Christine Glovasky, Jacki Hutchins and Meredith Petrecki, who each scored her first as a Red Dragon. Shannon Burrows saw the first action of her career in goal after replacing Christa Windhorst midway through the first half.

Oswego 2, Cortland 1
(Oct. 20; Oswego, NY)
The Red Dragons finished their conference slate with a 6-3-1 record with the loss at Oswego. After a scoreless first half, the Lakers built a 2-0 lead with goals in the 50th and 61st minutes. Andrea Marino netted her third goal of the season in the 88th minute to cut the lead to 2-1. Despite the loss, Cortland secured third place in the SUNYAC.

Rochester 2, Cortland 1 (2OT)
(Oct. 23; Cortland, NY)
The Yellowjackets converted a penalty kick 54 seconds into the second overtime to hand Cortland the loss. The Red Dragons opened up the scoring in the ninth minute when Andrea Marino blasted a 25-yard shot into the upper left 90 of the goal. Rochester tied the game in the 37th minute as a player's serve into the box curled into the goal. After a scoreless second half and first overtime, Cortland was whistled for a push in the box and Rochester capitalized.

Cortland 2, New Paltz 1
(Nov. 2; Cortland, NY; SUNYAC Quarterfinals)
Bonnie McMillan ran onto Andrea Marino's pass on the right side and sent a shot inside the right post for the game-winning goal in the 53rd minute. New Paltz, which managed just three shots all game and none in the second half, opened the scoring in the 41st minute when Marie Valentino tied the game at 1-1 in the 41st minute when she knocked in Kelsey Geary's rebound.

Cortland 1, Plattsburgh 0
(Nov. 5; Oneonta, NY; SUNYAC Semifinals)
The Red Dragons managed just three shots in the game but earned the win in the 50th minute when Kelsey Geary scored off Andrea Marino's crossing pass. Christa Windhorst made five saves to record her seventh shutout of the season.

Oneonta 3, Cortland 0
(Nov. 6; Oneonta, NY; SUNYAC Finals)
Cortland's season came to an end as fifth-ranked Oneonta won the league title. Oneonta tallied two goals late in the first half and added one more in the 87th minute to secure the victory. Christa Windhorst, who stopped four shots, was joined on the All-Tournament Team by Gabby Hajduk and Andrea Marino.

About SUNY Cortland

Located atop one of the rolling hills in central New York’s “City of Seven Valleys,” the State University of New York College at Cortland was founded in 1868 as the Cortland Normal School, which included among its earliest students inventor and industrialist Elmer A. Sperry of Sperry-Rand Corp. fame.

Over the decades, the campus expanded and in 1941, by an act of legislature and the Board of Regents, the institution officially became a four-year college providing courses leading to the bachelor’s degree. In 1948, Cortland was a founding member of the State University of New York.

Today, approximately 7,500 students are pursuing degrees within the College’s three academic divisions — arts and sciences, professional studies and the school of education. Twenty-three departments with a faculty of more than 400 offer the SUNY Cortland student body 70 majors and 44 minors from which to choose.

The College’s main campus covers 191 acres and includes 31 traditional and modern buildings. Fifteen of these structures are residence halls providing on-campus housing for approximately 3,000 students. Cortland also operates its Outdoor Education Center at Raquette Lake in the Adirondacks, the Hoxie Gorge Nature Preserve outside Cortland, and the Brauer Memorial Geological Field Station on the Helderberg Escarpment near Albany.

At Cortland, athletics are viewed as having an important role in the educational mission of the College. During the fall, winter and spring seasons, Cortland participates in 25 intercollegiate sports — 14 women’s and 11 men’s — in an attempt to provide a broad program which meets the needs, interests and abilities of its students.

The Cortland athletic program placed 13th nationally out of 434 colleges and universities in the 2004-05 all-sport United States Sports Academy Directors’ Cup Division III standings. The award was formerly known as the Sears Directors’ Cup from 1995-2002 and the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) Directors’ Cup in the 2002-03 school year. Cortland is the only New York school and one of only six nationwide to finish in the top 20 each of the last 10 years. Since 1989, the Red Dragons have captured 12 NCAA Division III team titles.

The College offers its student-athletes excellent athletic facilities. The newly-constructed on-campus stadium features two artificial turf fields. One field seats 6,500 spectators, the other 1,500. The Cortland football, field hockey, men’s and women’s soccer, men’s and women’s lacrosse and men’s and women’s track and field teams are among those who utilize the facility, which the New York Times called “...a new stadium worthy of a major university power.”

The Bessie L. Park Physical Education and Recreation Center, opened in 1973, features the Whitney T. Corey Gymnasium with a 3,500 seating capacity; the Olympic-sized Harriet Holsten swimming pool with gallery seating for 1,500; the Alumni Ice Arena, a facility which can accommodate 2,500 spectators; a 500-seat gymnastics arena, racquetball and squash courts, a wrestling room, modern athletic training facilities and the state-of-the-art Francis Woods Fitness Facility.

Nearby Clayton R. Lusk Field House, with its tartan-textured surface, is home for the indoor track teams, varsity practice sessions and recreational activities. Cortland’s soccer teams play on T. Fred “Prof” Holloway Field, which has lights for night contests and newly installed bleachers. The College also has 22 outdoor tennis courts and two outdoor basketball courts and boasts Robert H. Wallace Field (baseball) and Dragon Field (softball) as part of its 51 acres of athletic fields.
