Heidi Woodcock Selected as SUNY Cortland Full-Time Women’s Soccer Coach

Heidi Woodcock has been named the full-time head coach of the SUNY Cortland women’s soccer team, according to Director of Athletics Joan Sitterly. Woodcock served as the program’s interim head coach during the 2004-05 academic year.

Woodcock led the Red Dragons to a 9-10-2 overall record, including a 6-3-1 mark in the State University of New York Athletic Conference (SUNYAC). Cortland advanced to the championship game of the SUNYAC post-season tournament.

Woodcock also served as an assistant coach for the Red Dragons during the spring of 2004. Prior to her arrival at Cortland, Woodcock coached the Liverpool High School girls’ junior varsity soccer team in the fall of 2003 and was an assistant coach for the bronze medal-winning Central Region women’s open soccer team at the 2004 Empire State Games.

Formerly Heidi Brown, Woodcock is a 2002 graduate of Nazareth College, where she earned her bachelor’s degree in psychology and was a starting sweeper for the nationally ranked women’s soccer program. As a senior, she was named a second team All-American and the Empire 8 Player of the Year. Woodcock was also a two-time all-region and three-time all-state and all-conference selection.

A native of Liverpool, N.Y., Woodcock graduated from Liverpool High in 1998. She earned all-state, All-Central New York and all-league honors in soccer and was a member of the track and field team.

Woodcock’s four siblings were all athletes at Cortland. Brothers Scott and Ryan were both pitchers on Cortland’s baseball team, while sisters Tori and Molly played field hockey for the Red Dragons. Scott and Tori were All-Americans in their respective sports.

Woodcock and her husband, Brett, a former Le Moyne College baseball player, currently reside in Liverpool.
