ITHACA, N.Y. -- The SUNY Cortland women's indoor track and field team traveled to Cornell University on Saturday February 15, 2003 to compete in the Robert J. Kane Invitational. The highlight of the meet for the Red Dragons was a first-place finish in the pole vault by freshman Amanda Failing (Pearl River), who set a school record with a height of 10'03.50" (3.14m).

Freshman Andrea Gentile (Middletown/Minisink Valley) took second in the 60-meter hurdles with a time of 9.0. The Cortland 1,600-meter relay team also finished second (4:02.4). Freshman Brianne Capasso (Corinth) placed second in the mile (5:15.7). Junior Kerri Gannon (Sparkill/Tappan Zee) tied for fifth in the 200 meters (25.8), while junior Crystal Hirsch (Lowville/Beaver River) finished eighth in the event (26.2) and seventh in the 60-meter dash (7.8).

All times are hand held.
