CORTLAND, N.Y. – Cortland hosted the first official collegiate track and field meet at its Stadium Complex, competing against Herkimer County Community College and Erie Community College in a non-scoring twilight invitational.

Cortland finished first in nine different individual events during the rain-soaked meet. Highlighting the Red Dragons’ performances was an ECAC Division III Championship qualifying distance of 139’ 7.25” by junior Rachel Glod (Waterville) in the hammer throw.

Sophomore Lauren Eigenbrodt (Chatham) turned in a season-best time of 1:09.59 to win the 400-meter hurdles. Freshman Jessie Ellis (Springville/Springville Griffith Inst.) won the 200-meter dash (27.00), senior Kerri Gannon (Sparkill/Tappan Zee) captured the 400 meters (1:01.96), senior Annessa Melnick (Accord/Rondout Valley) won the 800 meters (2:35.88) and sophomore Brianne Capasso (Corinth) won the 1,500 meters (5:17.26).

In addition, sophomore Nikki Stuart (Tupper Lake) won the long jump (15’ 9.5”), freshman Jill Olmstead (Kenmore/Kenmore West) won the triple jump (32’ 1.5”) and freshman Katie Brody (Apalachin/Vestal) finished first in the shot put (30’ 2.5”).
