BRUNSWICK, MAINE – Cortland finished fourth out of 39 schools at the ECAC Division III Women's Indoor Track and Field Championships, hosted by Bowdoin College. The Red Dragons scored 51.5 points, 2.5 behind third-place New Jersey City and only 13.5 shy of champion Geneseo.

Freshman Bree Zogaria (Depew) finished second in the 500 meters (1:19.10) and sophomore Andrea Gentile (Middletown/Minisink Valley) was second in the 55-meter hurdles (8.70), just ahead of freshman Christina Acquaviva's (Utica/Proctor) third-place finish (8.77). Sophomore Brianne Capasso (Corinth) finished third in the 1,000 meters (2:59.72).

The quartet of senior Stephanie Bailey (Victor), junior Jackie Ferrentino (Buffalo/West Seneca East), freshman Kathy Steenburgh (Fairport) and senior Kerri Gannon (Sparkill/Tappan Zee) finished second in the 4x200-meter relay (1:46.74) and fifth in the 4x400-meter relay (4:00.59). The latter performance is an NCAA provisional qualifier.

Cortland's distance medley relay unit of Capasso, Zogaria, senior Annessa Melnick (Accord/Rondout Valley) and senior Betsy Schultz (Akron) placed fourth in 12:10.53, a provisional NCAA qualifying mark that currently ranks the Red Dragon among the top 15 schools in Division III in the event.

Also scoring points at the meet were freshman Rachel Sweet (Rochester/Greece Athena), who placed eighth in the 1,000 meters (3:06.04), and sophomore Megan Kelley (Newburgh/Walkill), who tied for eighth in the pole vault (10’ 0.75”).

2004 ECAC Division III Women's Indoor Track and Field Championships
Final Team Standings (Top 15) (39 teams in all)

1) Geneseo ............ 65
2) Wheaton .............. 60
3) New Jersey City ...... 54
4) Cortland .............. 51.5
5) Bates ................. 40
6) Ithaca ................. 37
7) Williams ............... 36
          Bowdoin ............. 36
9) Rensselaer ............ 33
10) Trinity ............... 32
11) Colby ................. 31
12) Oneonta ............... 30
13) Amherst ............... 28
14) Rochester ............. 23
15) Tufts ................. 22