HAMILTON, N.Y. – Cortland finished second overall, and was the top Division III team, at the 11-team Colgate University Class of ’32 Invitational. The host Raiders won the meet with 132 points, followed by Cortland with 89 points.

Senior Andrea Gentile (Middletown/Minisink Valley) and junior Christina Acquaviva (Utica/T.R. Proctor) each provisionally qualified for the NCAA Division III Championships in the 55-meter hurdles. Gentile won the event with a time of 8.55 seconds. Acquaviva finished fourth in the finals, but reached the NCAA standard in preliminaries with a time of 8.57 seconds.

Freshman Katie McEvoy (Batavia) and freshman Sarah Kimball (Liverpool) each cleared an ECAC-qualifying 10' 0" in the pole vault. McEvoy won the event based on fewer misses, with Kimball finishing second. Cortland also took top honors in the 4x400-meter relay as sophomore Ashley Wirges (Beekman/Arlington), Acquaviva, freshman Kate Omans (Bayport/St. John the Baptist) and freshman Alanna Hollborn (Islip Terrace/East Islip) turned in an ECAC-qualifying time of 4:10.08.

The Red Dragons reached ECAC standards with three other performances at the meet. Acquaviva placed second in the 200 meters (26.41), while senior Jen Longwell (Elmira/Southside) was third (2:21.21) and Wirges finished fourth (2:21.53) in the 800 meters.

# #