Campus Resources/Student Support
The Academic Support and Achievement Program (ASAP) helps students learn how they learn best. ASAP staff provide academic support to students of all ability and achievement levels in writing, reading, math and study skills. Students may use the services through self-referral or referral by an advisor, faculty member or dean. They may take advantage of professional staff and professionally trained peers to receive one-on-one instruction, small group instruction, workshops and supplemental instruction attached to challenging courses. Supplemental instruction is listed as “SI” in the course schedule. Students who have regularly attended ASAP have developed increased confidence in their abilities, have acquired independent learning skills, and have shown marked improvement in their grade point averages.

In summer 2002, SUNY Cortland opened the most impressive outdoor multipurpose stadium complex in NCAA Division III. The new stadium features two artificial turf fields, one of which includes a new eight-lane track and jumping areas. Both fields are lighted and are served by a dual-sided, multi-tier press box. The main stadium field seats 6,500 spectators, while the auxiliary field offers seating for 1,500 people. The Cortland football, field hockey, men’s and women’s lacrosse, and men’s and women’s track and field teams are among those that utilize the new facility. The facility also can be used for soccer.

Meanwhile, the Park Center houses a number of indoor athletic facilities. Included in the building are the 3,500-seat Corey Gymnasium for basketball, volleyball and wrestling, the 2,500-seat Alumni Arena for ice hockey, a 1,000-seat gymnastics arena, and the 1,500-seat Olympic-sized Holsten Pool. The Park Center also features four weight-training rooms, including two dedicated to varsity athletic teams, along with a wrestling practice room, two ballroom dance studios and a modern, fully equipped athletic training facility.

Cortland student-athletes also enjoy the use of the Lusk Field House with its tartan-textured track, Wallace Field for baseball, lighted Holloway Field for soccer, a new softball field, 22 tennis courts, and numerous outdoor practice fields.

More information about the athletic facilities can be found on page 305 of this catalog under the Recreational Sports Department.
COLLEGE STORE
The College Store, located in Neubig Hall, carries books required for all courses at SUNY Cortland, gifts, clothing, computers, software, personal care products, class rings, school supplies, greeting cards, New York Times best sellers and much more. The store also makes available a "Pre-Pack Service," which allows students to order their textbooks in advance and have them waiting for pick-up.

DINING SERVICES
The Auxiliary Services Corporation (ASC) operates the College's dining services. ASC prides itself on providing students with excellent service and exceptional value in a caring and professional manner, meeting their needs, exceeding their expectations, enhancing the quality of their campus living experience and supporting their educational goals.

All on-campus students are required by College policy to participate in a dining plan. A student is automatically enrolled in a dining plan once tuition is paid. ASC offers a variety of options that suit differing lifestyles, personal situations, and dietary and consumption patterns.

Every ASC dining facility offers à la carte service and is accessed with the SUNY Cortland I.D. card. Nine unique dining venues are conveniently located throughout campus with hours of service that extend from 7:30 a.m. until midnight, giving students and staff a multitude of choices about where and when to eat.

Dining plans at SUNY Cortland are adapted to a points system. Points, instead of dollars, are the exchange currency for all qualified dining plan transactions. This system enables ASC to package benefits for dining plan customers that are not available to cash customers, such as lowered pricing.

IDENTIFICATION CARDS
All students who register for courses at SUNY Cortland are required to have an I.D. card. To obtain the I.D. card, students must be registered and present photo identification. The SUNY Cortland I.D. is a multi-functional, video-imaged card with electronic verification capability. The I.D. provides online access for food service, vending, library, and health services on campus. Other options will be added in the future.

The SUNY Cortland I.D. card is issued by Auxiliary Services Corporation in Neubig Hall. A $10 fee is charged for the initial card. The fee to replace a lost or stolen card is $15. Office hours are Monday through Friday, 8 a.m.-4:30 p.m. Extended service hours are offered during the first week of each semester.

The Campus Activities and Corey Union Office

Multicultural Affairs Office

The Multicultural Affairs Office provides culturally enlightening programs with the intent of facilitating an environment in which cultural diversity is both appreciated and supported. It is the hope of this office that members of the SUNY Cortland community will develop a better understanding of all people in our society in general and specifically people of African, Asian, Latino, and Native American descent.

This office also serves as a primary resource for students of color and strives to ensure that their academic, personal, and social needs are fulfilled during their tenure at the College.

The Multicultural Affairs Office and the Student Support Committee co-sponsor The Challenge for Success Program to honor the outstanding achievements of African, Latino/a, Asian, and Native American (ALANA) students and the Kente Cloth ceremony for graduating ALANA seniors to symbolize the importance of family support.
SUNY Cortland has recognized the value of outdoor and environmental education since the mid-1930s when it began to require physical education students to participate in two-week camping programs as part of their formal training. Opportunities for study and field work in the outdoors have expanded greatly since that time and many of Cortland’s academic departments now make use of three adjunct campuses developed by the College to support outdoor and environmental education programs.

Outdoor Education Centers at Raquette Lake

Jack C. Sheltmire, Director
P.O. Box 99, Raquette Lake, NY 13436
(315) 354-4784

Antlers: Located on the west side of Raquette Lake, Antlers serves both as a docking area for those going to Camp Huntington and as a site for conferences and classes. A paved road from Route 28 leads to Antlers.

Camp Huntington: Camp Huntington provides an outstanding natural setting for students to examine most aspects of the environment. The camp’s forests, bogs and ponds serve as natural laboratories for courses in the biological sciences. Raquette Lake provides an elaborate research area in which students examine the unpolluted waters.

Physical education and recreation students make extensive use of the Outdoor Education Centers in required and elective courses. Students from all disciplines enjoy opportunities at the Centers to learn how to use the outdoors as a classroom for academic subjects and to learn to develop an appreciation for the outdoor environment.

Hoxie Gorge Nature Preserve

R. Lawrence Klotz, Biological Sciences Department
Bowers Hall, Room 240
(607) 753-2715

Hoxie Gorge Nature Preserve is a 169-acre natural area close to the main campus. It provides many different environments, each with a unique set of characteristics that warrant careful study by the biologist or geologist or treat the casual visitor with a pleasant visual experience. The natural environments include pristine streams running through the gorge area, mature woodlands and old fields. The McDermott Nature Trail provides access to these areas.

Hoxie Gorge provides SUNY Cortland students, faculty and staff with the opportunity for class and individual study, research and enjoyment of the natural environment. Located only seven miles from campus, Hoxie Gorge is easily visited during a two or three hour class period. Approximately 1,000 students per year are involved in academic field study there.

Faculty members and a number of their students have utilized Hoxie Gorge extensively for research purposes. This research has attracted over $500,000 in grants and resulted in approximately 30 journal publications. The research topics include insect chemical ecology and behavior, taxonomy of mushrooms, conservation biology of amphibians, pollination biology of flowering plants, and nutrient cycling in streams.

Brauer Memorial Geologic Field Station

Jack Sheltmire, Director
Center for Environmental and Outdoor Education
Miller Building, Room 230
(607) 753-5488

SUNY Cortland’s Brauer Memorial Field Research Station is the only major geological facility in State University of New York. It is located in the town of Bethlehem, eight miles south of Albany and near the famed Helderberg Escarpment — an area known to geologists as a classic region of fossiliferous limestone and shale formations of the Devonian age.

A main building and bunkhouse on the 33-acre tract provide classroom, dining and sleeping accommodations for approximately 36 students. This facility is used by the College’s Geology Department as a base for studies of the Catskill Mountains, mid-Hudson Valley and Taconic Range, which offer sections of Lower and Middle Paleozoic carbonate and terrigeneous rocks, structurally complex and metamorphic terranes, and widespread Pleistocene landforms and deposits.

The Adirondacks and Berkshires also are accessible from Brauer for field trips and provide opportunities for examining igneous and high-grade metamorphic rocks of the Precambrian age.

The Brauer Field Station is available for use by other educational institutions and professional organizations. In addition to activities sponsored by the College’s admissions and alumni affairs offices, SUNY Cortland and other institutions have used this facility for programs in biology, foreign language, and geology.

The Substance Abuse Prevention Service (SAPS) recognizes the adjustments students face when they embark on their academic careers. SAPS exists to help students understand the connection between substance abuse and future success, to identify their individual risk factors for chemical dependency, and examine the choices they have made regarding alcohol and other drug use.

Toward this goal, SAPS provides the following services:
- peer education
- substance education class
- educational workshops and training sessions for residence halls, classes, and organizations
- information and resources
