2004-2006 Graduate Catalog
Information

The catalog for the State University of New York College at Cortland is published by the Institutional Advancement Office. This edition covers graduate programs for the 2004-2006 academic years. Information in it is accurate as of April 2004. Circumstances may require that a given course be withdrawn or that alternative offerings be made.

Registration information for each academic term is available on SUNY Cortland's Web site under “Quick Links” at “BANNER Web Access” and on the registrar's home page under “Course Schedule."

All applicants are reminded that State University of New York College at Cortland is subject to the policies promulgated by the Board of Trustees of the State University of New York. Fees and charges are set forth in accordance with such policies and may well change in response to alterations in policy or actions of the legislature, during the period covered by this publication. The College reserves the right to change its policies without notice.

The catalog includes admission information, academic policies of the College, requirements for master's degrees, descriptions of courses and requirements for certificates of advanced study.

Those interested in general information about the College should contact the Graduate Studies Office. Information about summer and winter programs may be obtained from the Summer and Winter Session Office.

The catalog also can be accessed on the College's Web site at at www.cortland.edu/catalog/.

Affirmative Action/Nondiscrimination Policy

Admission to State University of New York and to SUNY Cortland is without regard to race, sex, color, creed, sexual orientation, national origin, disability or marital status.
